Are you looking to gain further experience of teaching in a classroom setting?
Are you looking to build a career that gives you a genuine sense of achievement and fulfilment?
Would you like to work in an inclusive school with a team dedicated to supporting our young people?
If so, this could be the perfect opportunity for you!

An exciting opportunity has arisen for someone to join Cobden Primary School as a Higher Level Teaching Assistant on a permanent basis, working 5 days a week.

We are looking to appoint a well-motivated and enthusiastic individual who is committed to delivering high quality provision to our pupils under the direction and supervision of the classroom teacher. This role will also include covering classes for PPA, Senior Leadership release time and on occasion unplanned absences. The post holder will be required to work across the school, be flexible, and understand that the needs of the primary school can change quickly. Time for planning and preparation will be given too where required.

This role is perfect for someone who is already experienced as a HLTA or an ECT looking to widen their experience within the classroom. Applicants must have HLTA/ QTS status and have Level 2 qualifications in Maths and English; however we are willing to support the right candidate to gain their HLTA qualification alongside the post.

This role is a rewarding one with a successful candidate having the opportunity to join a vibrant, multi-cultural school community where pupils are motivated to learn and behave well. You will have the opportunity to work alongside our excellent team and be part of our flourishing wider Cobden community. Cobden Primary School has great transport links with the train station a 5 minute walk away.

The ideal candidate will have:

- HLTA status (or QTS)
- Experience of supporting, planning, evaluation and delivery of learning activities in an educational setting
- The ability to take direction from the Class Teacher to ensure all tasks and learning is undertaken
- The ability to manage pupil behaviour within and outside of the classroom
- A good understanding of teaching and learning

In return we offer:

- Opportunity to work within a supportive team
- Opportunities for career development with access to apprenticeship and training schemes
- Generous annual leave entitlements
- Access to the generous Local Government Pension Scheme (24% contribution by the employer)
- Employee Support Service (counselling) for employees and close family members (24/7 support)
- Employee Discount and Benefit Scheme
- Opportunity for an annual flu vaccination
