Higher Level Teaching Assistant

Thank you for your enquiry regarding this post.

Please look on the school's website www.princehenrys.co.uk for more information about the school and for relevant policies e.g. Child Protection etc.

You will find in this booklet:

- Information about the post
- Information from the headteacher
- Job Description
- Person Specification
- Guidance for completing the application form

If you have a disability and require this information in a different format, for example, Braille, larger print or on CD, please contact the HR Assistant at the school:

hrs@princehenrys.co.uk

The closing date for applications is Monday 13th January 2025. Please note that it is our policy not to accept late applications. Shortlisting will commence immediately, and it is anticipated that interviews will be held week commencing Monday 16th January 2025.

Following the closing date, a recruitment panel will review the information provided and consider how well it matches the person specification. Shortlisted candidates will then be invited in for interview and references taken. On the interview day a number of sessions may be organised which may include completing a tour of the school, a classroom teaching observation, a written or data task, meeting with students or, dependent on the role, a combination of the above. The results of these sessions will inform the panel in their decision to take candidates through to a formal interview.

The school is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of our students and expect all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. All appointments will be subject to an Enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service check. Shortlisted candidates are also subject to a basic online search in line with KCSiE policy 2024.

We aim for diversity within our workforce. Applications are welcome from all, irrespective of sex, sexuality, race, religion, marital status, age, disability, pregnancy/maternity, gender identity or gender transition.

All Collaborative Learning Trust schools are non-smoking/vaping sites. Please note it is the Trust's policy that reimbursement will not be made with regard to candidates' expenses.

INFORMATION ABOUT THE POST

At Prince Henry's Grammar School, we are committed to ensuring that all students flourish and achieve, regardless of barriers to learning. The role of the Higher-Level Teaching Assistant is vital in supporting our SEND students to achieve their full potential. If you are keen to make a difference working with young people, whilst also developing your own skill set and expertise, then this could be the role for you.

THE INCLUSION TEAM

The Inclusion Team is a highly successful team led by the Special Educational Needs co-ordinator (SENCo) and managed by the Deputy Headteacher: Quality of Education. The Team includes one Inclusion Officer: SEND and several Teaching Assistants.

At present there are 21 students with Educational Health & Care Plans and there are approximately 180 students on the Special Educational Needs Register.

Since being revalidated with the Inclusion Chartermark, which gave us an opportunity to share and celebrate our inclusive practice, the team has continued to maintain and build highly successful relationships with faculties and staff in school. The input and achievement of our Teaching Assistants is greatly valued by staff, students and parents/carers.

The HLTA will work directly with the English faculty to support individual and/or small groups of students, particularly as part of our literacy and phonics intervention strategies.

VISION

The Collaborative Learning Trust will be recognised as a highly successful learning community that provides outstanding, sustainable, and inclusive 'nursery to 19' education for young people of all abilities. Students will leave Collaborative Learning Trust schools having enjoyed their education and developed into lifelong independent learners with the creativity, adaptability, resilience and leadership skills to contribute to, and succeed in, our 21st century society.

Our vision is underpinned by the following values:

- Education for the common good of the whole community – supporting the development of lifelong independent learners with the creativity, adaptability, resilience and leadership skills to contribute to society
- Education for dignity and respect – a focus on equality for all, trust, integrity, respect and an appreciation of diversity
- Education for wisdom, knowledge and skills – high quality teaching and learning designed to secure the 'all round' education of young people and engender a passion and enthusiasm for learning
- Education for hope and aspiration – a culture of aspiration and success (in students, staff and governance)

This will be achieved through:

- A commitment to a genuinely collaborative approach to ensure sustained school improvement towards the vision
- Strong ethical leadership and behaviour at all levels
- Autonomous ethos and identity for each school, whilst sharing core values and vision across both church and non-church schools
- Effective staff professional development and opportunities for excellent practitioners to develop their career

'We as a Trust have signed up to the Yorkshire and Humber climate action pledge, making a commitment to protecting the climate and nature'

INFORMATION ABOUT PRINCE HENRY'S GRAMMAR SCHOOL

Prince Henry's is an over-subscribed comprehensive school with over 1660 students, including around 350 in the Sixth Form. It was recently named in the Times Parent Power guide as one of the top comprehensive schools in the North of England. Our extremely positive Ofsted report (December 2022) stated that "there is enough improvement to suggest that the school could be outstanding if we were to carry out a graded (section 5) inspection". Regardless of our current success, we strive for the continuous improvement of our educational provision so that our students are fully prepared for 21st century society. We serve the market town of Otley (in the Wharfe Valley) and the surrounding villages including Pool, Bramhope and Adel. The Wharfe Valley is a wonderful region in which to live and work. It is close to areas of outstanding natural beauty, yet also benefits from good transport links to key towns and cities across the country.

Prince Henry's Grammar School has a rich history dating back to its Royal Charter of 1607 and to this day the school remains at the heart of the local community. We work hard to maintain strong links, for example through community use of our sporting facilities and our provision of an extensive Community Education Programme.

High standards, in both the academic and broadest sense of the word, continue as the underlying principles of all that we do. Our behaviour and achievement policy, known as Positive Discipline, is central to this. The system rewards students for what they do well, whilst also providing a framework within which misdemeanors are challenged and sanctioned in a consistent manner. This results in the extremely positive attitudes to learning that exists amongst our students. Prince Henry's is an enjoyable place to work and learn and we aim to appoint colleagues who shares our commitment to high professional standards.

Our focus on equality and diversity has a significant impact on the philosophy and operation of the whole school. An international perspective is evident in all areas of school life and all colleagues are expected to deal with issues of global citizenship and equality through their role in school. Typically, over 500 students take part in one of a dozen or more foreign trips and exchanges each year.

Our commitment to promoting equality and celebrating diversity lies at the heart of our vision, and we have received national acclaim for our work in this respect. The school holds the highest level of the Stephen Lawrence Education Standard and has supported several other schools to develop their own inclusive practices through the RED award developed internally.

Extra-curricular and enrichment provision is rich and varied. There are strong sporting traditions (including rugby, netball, hockey, athletics and swimming) and considerable interest in outdoor pursuits through a successful Duke of Edinburgh Award programme. Music, drama and a variety of other activities also flourish. Governors and trustees are keen to appoint staff who will support the vibrancy of our school.

For further information about Prince Henry's, including details of the current curriculum offer, please see the school website www.princehenrys.co.uk and the school's prospectus documents here.

INFORMATION FROM THE HEADTEACHER

Dear Prospective Applicant,

We would like to thank you for your interest in applying for this post at Prince Henry's Grammar School.

Of particular interest to new members of staff is the emphasis placed on high quality professional development. Prince Henry's is a strategic partner in the Red Kite Teaching School Alliance and as such we work with our partners to develop and deliver high quality CPL to staff in our own school and across the region. This ensures good access to development opportunities for our teaching and associate staff.

A number of services and benefits have been developed including such things as free coffee/tea at break time, parking, annual flu vaccinations, access to Cycle to Work and Computer schemes, corporate gym membership, staff takeaway meal service through Henry's Diner, long service awards and social events organised by the Staff Committee. There is also an opportunity for the children of staff to access the excellent education available at Prince Henry's in line with the Admissions Policy.

Over recent years the already strong educational provision at Prince Henry's has improved even further, and consequently the reputation of the school. As a result, Prince Henry's has grown in size, including significant growth in the sixth form. Despite the school's achievements, governors and school leaders are not complacent, and seek to employ staff with the ambition, knowledge and skills to contribute to further improvement in this larger than average comprehensive school.

This is an exciting time to join a forward-thinking and ambitious school. I have been in post as Headteacher since April 2022 and have since made three appointments to the Senior Leadership Team. As such, we are looking to keeping the aspects which work constant and maintain excellence, whilst pushing ourselves even further to ambitious levels. That said, staffing is stable at Prince Henry's; it is hard to leave such a wonderful school and we all benefit from a huge range of experience and stability.

We hope that after reading the information about this vacancy you will want to apply. Please clearly describe your relevant skills and abilities, knowledge and experience (see Person Specification) in the appropriate sections of the application form and explain why these make you an ideal candidate for your chosen post. We look forward to receiving your application.

Yours faithfully

Sally Bishop
Headteacher

JOB DESCRIPTION: HLTA - ENGLISH

Name:
Faculty:	English
Salary Grade:	SO1 SCP 23-25
Contract Type:	Permanent, Full time
Responsible to:	Faculty Leader

PURPOSE OF ROLE

At Prince Henry's Grammar School, we are committed to ensuring that all students flourish and achieve, regardless of barriers to learning. The role of the higher-level teaching assistant is vital in supporting our SEND students to achieve their full potential. If you are keen to make a difference working with young people, whilst also developing your own skill set and expertise, then this could be the role for you.

The HLTA will work directly with the English faculty to support individual and/or small groups of students, particularly as part of our literacy and phonics intervention strategies.

Main Duties:

1. To work with the Faculty Leader and Deputy Faculty Leader for English, SENCO and KS3 & KS4 Key Stage Directors, to identify and implement appropriate intervention strategies.
2. To lead, manage and deliver appropriate intervention for small groups and 1:1 cohorts across KS3 and KS4, including the use of individual student timetables, liaising directly with students, form tutors, subject teachers and the relevant pastoral teams.
3. To deliver bespoke phonics support for those with additional high needs (Fresh Start).
4. To deliver bespoke support for those with additional high needs e.g. Inference (LLP)
5. To lead and deliver bespoke KS4 qualifications e.g. Entry Level, Functional Skills.
6. To work with the Faculty Leader to regularly review the list of students requiring intervention and timetable it appropriately, and communicate with parents.
7. To maintain centralised progress tracking of relevant interventions, for SLT oversight.
8. To update English teaching staff on the interventions in place.
9. To provide timely data on students' progress, using Reading Test data, and qualitative student voice information.
10. To support in liaising with the primary school Cluster to support the academic transition of year 6 pupils to Prince Henry's.
11. To attend appropriate meetings and report back on student progress.
12. To cover occasional lessons in emergency situations (where possible, within the English faculty). Work for students and instructions for this will be provided.

Generic Duties:

1. Be a positive role model to all students in their presentation and their personal/professional conduct
2. Be aware of and comply with policies and procedures relating to the school and child protection, health, safety and security and confidentiality, reporting all concerns to an appropriate person
3. Be aware of and comply with the code of conduct, regulations and policies of the school
4. Be aware of equal opportunities legislation and, along with colleagues, work towards ensuring that the school complies with its requirements
5. Be aware of and support differences, ensuring all students have equal access to opportunities to learn and develop
6. Contribute to the overall ethos, aims and objectives of the school including the school's commitment to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people
7. Appreciate and support the role of other professionals
8. Be aware of the school's duty of care in relation to staff, students and visitors and to comply with the health and safety policy at all times
9. Establish and maintain positive, constructive and professional working relationships with staff, visitors, students, parents and other professionals of the school
10. Recognise own strengths and areas of expertise and use these to advise and support others
11. Participate in the School's Performance Appraisal process and seek to develop knowledge and skills through professional development opportunities
12. Carry out any other duties commensurate with the grade of the post, as directed by the Headteacher

Many of the above depend on the style of teaching used in the mainstream classroom and the skills of the individual support staff. However, the development of a good working relationship between the subject specialist and the support staff will enable them to work together for the benefit of all students.

Supporting the Teacher

An HLTA that is well informed and confident will effectively remove the barriers to learning for students, particularly within the subject area that they specialise in. They may assist classroom teachers to set more ambitious learning tasks, provide more speaking, reading and writing opportunities for students, and also make useful contributions to lesson plans, Pupil Centred Passports and students' targets. Within lessons, the teacher has the responsibility for what is being taught and for the conduct of the students, however the responsibility lies with the HLTA if working with a small group of students as part of their specialist area provision.

HLTAs should contribute fully to the information held on students, including the nature of the difficulties that hamper students' progress. Teachers should be able to recognise and take full advantage of the detailed knowledge the HLTAs gain on individual students. Feedback to the teacher by the HLTA after small group or individual work contributes to the teacher's assessment of the students and provides information that is valuable in planning future work. HLTAs will use and create scaffolded strategies and resources to support learning to be shared/created/collaboratively with teaching staff, and also as part of any work relating to their own sessions and specialism.

In accordance with guidance provided within the School's Positive Discipline Policy, an HLTA can provide valuable reinforcement in dealing with behaviour problems and potential disruptive behaviour from students. Teaching Assistants should always work under the direction of the classroom teacher when they are involved in supporting the Positive Discipline policy.

Supporting the School

All support staff at Prince Henry's Grammar School are not only part of the staff but are part of a very successful team, and as such will translate school policies into practice and further the ethos of the school.

Performance Appraisal

The Faculty Leader, or a designated member of the English faculty nominated by the Faculty Leader, will act as the HLTA's line manager for appraisal. The school will regularly review the performance of all HLTAs and will commit to necessary training. This appraisal (or personal review) is an opportunity for the HLTAs to discuss their professional needs with their line manager. Appraisals will be carried out annually.

HEALTH & SAFETY

All staff will make themselves familiar with the requirements of the Health and Safety Policy which are relevant to their work.

SAFEGUARDING

Collaborative Learning Trust is committed to promoting and safeguarding the welfare of all children and expect all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. This post is subject to an enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) checks.

In line with KCSiE 2024, we will carry out an online search as part of our due diligence on shortlisted candidates. This may help identify any matters that are publicly available online, which we might want to explore with you at interview.

STATEMENT ON THE RECRUITMENT OF EX-OFFENDERS

- As an organisation which is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act and using the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) to assess applicants' suitability for positions of trust, we comply fully with the DBS Code of Practice and undertake to treat all applicants for positions fairly. We do not discriminate unfairly against any subject of a Disclosure on the basis of conviction or other information revealed.
- We are committed to the fair treatment of our staff, potential staff or users of our services, regardless of race, gender, religion, sexual orientation, responsibilities for dependants, age, physical/mental disability or offending background
- We actively promote equality of opportunity for all with the right mix of talent, skills, and potential and welcome applications from a wide range of candidates, including those with criminal records. We select all candidates for interview based on their skills, qualifications, and experience.
- All applicants who are offered employment in a school will be subject to an Enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service check. This will include details of cautions, reprimands and warnings as well as spent and unspent convictions. An enhanced disclosure may also contain non-conviction information from local police records which a chief police officer thinks may be relevant. A statement advising that a Disclosure will be requested in the event of the individual being offered the position will be shown in all job adverts and recruitment packs.
- We can only ask an individual to provide details of convictions and cautions that we are legally entitled to know about. Applicants must therefore disclose all spent and unspent convictions, cautions, reprimands and final warnings that are not 'protected' (i.e. filtered out) as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) order 1975 (as amended in 2013).
- We ensure that staff involved in recruitment have received appropriate guidance on the relevant legislation relating to the employment of ex-offenders (e.g. the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 and its amendments in 2013) and know how to access advice and support.
- You will have the opportunity for an open and measured discussion on the subject of any offences or other matter that might be relevant to the position. Failure to reveal information that is directly relevant to the position sought could lead to withdrawal of an offer of employment or disciplinary action which could result in dismissal.

- We make every subject of a DBS check aware of the existence of the DBS Code of Practice and make a copy available on request.
- We undertake to ensure that any matter revealed in a Disclosure is discussed with the person seeking the position before withdrawing a conditional offer of employment.
- Having a criminal record will not necessarily bar you from working with us. This will depend on the nature of the position and the circumstances and background of your offences.
