

Required for a September Start

Higher Level Teaching Assistant (HLTA)

Scale 4/5 (depending on experience)

35 hours per week (8:00am – 4:00pm)

Davenant Foundation School is seeking a dedicated and enthusiastic Higher Level Teaching Assistant to join our exciting new Cognition & Learning Resource Provision.

This rewarding role involves supporting pupils' educational, social, emotional and personal development, enabling them to access learning, develop independence and achieve their individual outcomes. Working under the direction of the Deputy Headteacher, SENCo and teaching staff, you will deliver targeted interventions, support learning and play a key role in the successful operation of our specialist provision.

We are looking for a committed professional with a passion for inclusive education, strong communication skills and the ability to build positive relationships with pupils, families and colleagues.

This is an exciting opportunity to make a meaningful difference to the lives of young people and help shape a new specialist provision within our school community.

If you are motivated by helping every pupil achieve their potential, we would love to hear from you.

Further details of the post and the school, along with application forms are available from the school website: www.davenantschool.co.uk. Letters of application, along with an application form, should be submitted to the Human resources team via recruitment@davenant.org by the closing date 6 July 2026.

Davenant Foundation School is committed to creating a diverse workforce. We'll consider all qualified applicants for employment without regard to sex, race, religion, belief, sexual orientation, gender reassignment, pregnancy, maternity, age, disability, marriage or civil partnership.

We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children. All appointments will be subject to satisfactory completion of safeguarding checks.
