Welcome from our Headteacher

Dear Prospective Candidate,

Thank you for your interest in joining our school community. As Headteacher of Worthinghead Primary School, I am incredibly proud to welcome you to a school that is defined by its warmth, its vibrant energy, and a genuine "family feel."

Our Vision for the Future

At Worthinghead, everything we do is underpinned by our core ethos: Be Kind, Work Hard and Grow. We are a forward-thinking school with exciting ambitions for the future. We are currently focused on evolving our curriculum to ensure it is deeply inclusive, creative, and adaptive to the changing needs of our pupils.

To us, growth isn't just academic; it is about nurturing the whole child. We are investing heavily in our targeted support frameworks, particularly for children with special educational needs and disabilities (SEND), ensuring that barriers to learning are dismantled. Our vision for the future is to ensure that every single child, and member of staff, has the tools, encouragement, and supportive environment they need to work hard, show kindness, and truly grow to their full potential.

Why the HLTA Role Matters to Us

To bring this vision to life, we rely on exceptional classroom leaders who live and breathe these values. We don't view the HLTA role as a reactive support position; we see it as a vital, strategic link in our teaching team. We are looking for an experienced professional who will inspire our children to work hard and be kind, while directly driving their growth.

Whether you are stepping in to cover a whole class with confidence, leading innovative small-group interventions, or using your insight to adapt learning for our SEND pupils, you will be central to our school's journey. In this role, you will have the autonomy to use your initiative, the backing of a supportive leadership team, and a direct hand in shaping our future.

If you are a motivated, organised, and compassionate educator who wants to work in a school where your voice is heard and your contribution genuinely matters, we would be delighted to receive your application.

Warmest regards,

Mr Henry Naylor
Headteacher
