History Teacher (Maternity Cover)

Apply by: 30th September

Start date: October 2024 or January 2025

Salary: Inner London (competitive based on skills and experience)

Location: Stratford, London - Newham

Contract: Maternity Cover , part time - full time (0.6 to 1) , subject to an enhanced DBS check

We are looking for an excellent History teacher with expertise ranging from KS3 to KS5. An organised and committed individual who will live our values to ensure the very best history education for our young people. Such an individual will be joining a fantastic humanities team where students get the opportunity to learn geography, history and politics as discrete subjects. The humanities team really does put teaching and learning at the forefront of their vision and would love you to become a part of it.

School 21 is an all-through school serving students from reception to year 13. We are an innovative school with a mission to empower young people to meet the demands of life in the 21st century. History and Geography are taught at KS3 - 5. Government & Politics is taught at A Level and is a hugely popular subject at School21.

The successful candidate will be:

- an excellent teacher and subject specialist with experience of teaching KS3-5
- A committed individual that puts building relationships with all stakeholders at the heart of everything they do
- A community focused individual who will live our key values
- an organised and hardworking individual

WE OFFER:

- Exceptional CPD
- The chance to be an integral part of the exciting journey of the department and school
- Collaborative working across the 4 to 18 school

- A strong feedback culture so that teachers can develop in areas of their practice that are important to them
