Are you an emotionally intelligent, fun, resilient and determined person who is passionate about education? Are you looking for a new challenge? Would you like to work in a school where nothing surprises you and no two days are the same? This is a highly rewarding role in a fantastic, challenging and unique school for someone with extensive school experience working with vulnerable children and those with additional SEND needs.

Beormund Primary school serves children with complex social, emotional and mental health (SEMH) needs. Our children all have an Education & Health Care Plan with varying needs such as attachment and trauma, SLCN, ADHD, ASD, ODD – we could go on. All of our children need patience, time, care and expertise.

We rely on a successful, experienced and capable staff team who are dedicated to improving the life chances of those children whose needs cannot be met in a mainstream setting.

We hold high expectations of all our children who make accelerated academic progress as well as improve their social and emotional responses and behaviours. Successful candidates will have the responsibility for keeping children safe, enhancing their self-esteem, providing appropriate challenge as well as supporting teachers in delivering purposeful, inspiring and engaging learning opportunities.

We are looking for HLTAs who:

- have a keen interest in children's learning and a desire to grow professionally and learn more;
- can demonstrate excellent written and oral communication skills; display competent English and Maths skills;
- have a dynamic personality, caring attitude, patience, enthusiasm and emotional intelligence;
- have the ability to work as part of a team as well as the confidence and keenness to work on their own initiative and lead projects or interventions,
- have a love of learning,
- can work well under pressure, are resilient in nature and have a good sense of humour.

The safety, welfare and wellbeing of the children is the first priority of Governors and staff at Beormund Primary School. All appointments are subject to appropriate vetting and barring checks, as described in the current DfE Guidance 'Keeping Children Safe in Education'
