St Helen's is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and requires all staff to share this commitment.

St Helen's is a Good small village school where staff and children are committed to working together.

We are seeking an outstanding High Level TA who is enthusiastic, creative and motivated to join our friendly school from September 2025. The HLTA will provide timetabled class cover to release teachers for their PPA time and may be asked to lead an additional class if cover cannot be sourced elsewhere. This will be a part time post, working 2 days a week. Days to be discussed at application, although it is preferable that the 2 days will be worked consultatively. (i.e Tue/Wed).

St Helen's is an outward looking primary school with a real sense of purpose. It plays a central role in the heart of Bluntisham's community. We are a small village school where staff and children are committed to working together.

We are looking for someone who:

- Is committed to raising achievement for all of our pupils;
- Is highly motivated, with high expectations of themselves and the children;
- Is a strong team player, contributing to the development of and sharing good practice throughout the school;
- Is creative in the delivery of the curriculum and believes in hands on experiences for the children;
- Is inclusive and reflective in their practice

We will offer you:

- Strong strategic leadership and a commitment to achieving high standards

- A vibrant learning community with enthusiastic pupils and a hard working team
- A commitment to your professional development.
- Access to Education Mutual health care support

Please refer to the job description and the personal specification when applying; outlining what skills, qualities and experience you can offer.

Visits to the school are warmly welcomed and encouraged.
