The Royal Liberty School where “pupils are well behaved, respectful and courteous” and “parents value the sense of community, which is palpable throughout the school” (OFSTED February 2019).

Would you like to move your career forward in a friendly environment with eager students and support from an experienced leadership team.

The Home School Support Worker (HSSW) will play a key role in the day to day offer from the Pastoral Team by supporting Heads of year to ensure students are supported and safeguarded. The HSSW will work with families along with some mentoring of students and assisting the pastoral team.

If you have a positive approach, you are resilient and can enhance our team to support our young people in overcoming barriers to their learning in order for them to achieve their full potential, we would like to talk to you. This is an exciting opportunity to be part of a forward thinking school. This position would be suitable for someone with recent experience with working with young people or has a passion for supporting young people. The ability to speak a second language, or to use sign language would be advantageous.

The successful candidate will be committed to our vision, our values and ethos, and have the interpersonal skills and ability to work with staff and students to achieve all they can.

Our results have shown impressive improvement over the last 3 years with the majority of subjects consistently above national average;

- English 9-4 80%
- Maths 9-4 85%

The school is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.

This post is subject to an enhanced disclosure from the Disclosure and Barring Service. The Royal Liberty School is an equal opportunities employer.

SUCCESS FOR ALL
EDUCATIONAL TRUST

- English and Maths 9-4 76%

We are part of the Success for All Educational Trust with Redden Court School and Sanders School. As an employee you will be covered by our excellent well-being support and medical cover programme through the School Advisory Service (SAS).

If you are looking to advance your career in a small, friendly supportive school and are committed to providing the very best experience for our students we would love to meet you.

As an employee you will be covered by our excellent well-being support and medical cover programme through the School Advisory Service (SAS).
