St John Paul II Multi Academy is a dynamic Catholic Multi Academy Company, currently comprising nine primary and two secondary schools, with plans for significant expansion.

Our schools are located in the northern area of Birmingham, serving diverse communities and ensuring that all pupils receive an exceptional education grounded in our Catholic values.

We are now seeking an outstanding HR Business Partner to lead our people strategy at a pivotal moment in our development. This is a high-profile leadership role with significant influence, driving excellence across HR operations, employee relations, organisational development, and workforce planning.

The successful candidate will bring strategic insight, professional credibility, and a passion for developing people and culture. You will work closely with senior leaders to strengthen HR capability, ensure compliance, enhance staff well-being, and support the continued growth of our Multi Academy.

If you are an experienced HR professional with the ambition to shape a growing organisation and make a meaningful impact across our family of schools, we would be delighted to hear from you.
