The successful candidate will be working to support an individual student with special educational needs in the classroom and 1:1 outside the classroom. This would include teaching parts of the GCSE curriculum, developing a bespoke extra-curricular timetable in line with the student's interests, and providing social skills interventions 1:1 and with small groups. We are looking for a colleague who has a genuine passion for supporting young people, who has experience working with young people with challenging behaviour, who is willing to develop their knowledge of special educational needs, and who has a flexible and positive approach and enjoys working as part of a team. The job description and person specification give further details about the role and the applicant we would like to attract.
