Headteacher: Mr A Hilldrup

The Headteacher and Governors wish to appoint an outstanding class teacher to teach in Key Stage 1, to cover for a period of maternity leave absence for a teacher anticipated to be between mid/late May 2023 and late December 2023. (This may also be extended into part of the Spring Term 2024 – however, this will not be known until towards the end of the calendar year).

We are looking for someone who has:

- excellent classroom organisation and behaviour management skills;
- high expectations of all pupils and is committed to creating a stimulating classroom environment;
- the ability to enthuse children to learn and understands what is required to secure outstanding progress;
- a passion for education and is able to demonstrate consistently good and outstanding classroom practise;
- excellent communication skills at all levels (and is able to deploy support staff effectively);
- the ability to inspire, motivate and work effectively in a team;
- great creativity and knows how to support children to become independent, persevere with challenges and present their work to a high standard;
- a strong understanding of how to support children to become confident readers and develop a strong phonics knowledge (using Little Wandle); and
- the ability to support children, of all abilities, through inclusive practice.

Further details and an application form are available from the vacancy page on our website:
