

Teacher of SEN
(MPR/UPS) (plus SEN allowance)

Would you relish the opportunity to teach in a highly inclusive and innovative establishment? We believe Willow Bank School is a centre of best practice for personal development, pastoral care and teaching and learning. We require a dynamic, committed and hardworking teacher to join us in our new multi-million pound school building who is passionate about pupil engagement and progression. Willow Bank School is an SEMH provision for pupils aged 7 – 16.

There is an opportunity to discuss a TLR position with responsibilities related to Faculty and Curriculum Leadership alongside this role for the right candidate.

We are seeking an experienced teacher who will be required to teach our primary pupils in KS2 with the possibility of teaching in Key Stage 3 whilst meeting the complex pastoral needs of our pupils.

The successful candidate will be expected to ensure that pupils' special educational needs are being addressed in line with the pupil's individual ECHP whilst having due regard for the School's philosophy and policies.

This exciting post requires a conscientious and energetic team player. You can be part of a team which believes that every day is an opportunity to succeed and develop students to achieve to the best of their ability. If you are a passionate and outstanding teacher, are flexible, imaginative and enthusiastic, we would love to hear from you. This is a fantastic opportunity for you to shape the lives of young people in St Helens.

In April 2022, Ofsted judged Willow Bank School as "Good".

This post is not suitable for ECTs.

To Apply

To apply for this role, please go to the job vacancies section of St Helens Council website (www.sthelens.gov.uk) and apply online.

Willow Bank School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of our students and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. This post is subject to satisfactory Disclosure and Barring Section Service (DBS) Enhanced Disclosure Certificate.
