Are you looking to work in a Good school? One that believes in changing education, transforming pupils and colleagues' lives? Are you a committed and passionate practitioner who has a sense of fun and is looking to enhance their career and life?

Then come and join the fantastic team at St Margaret's!

Do you enjoy working with children in KS2? Are you an outstanding practitioner? If so, we are looking for an inspirational key stage two teacher to join our team.

Having recently soared through our Ofsted inspection, gaining a grading of Good with 3, yes 3, outstanding areas after just 1 year of transformation, we are thrilled to be welcoming new colleagues into our school. This is such an exciting time as we share our vision for our school to be a beacon for teaching and learning whilst always focusing on the whole child and whole adult so that everyone can thrive!

At St Margaret's Primary Academy, we pride ourselves on providing a safe, secure, positive and nurturing learning environment for the children from the local community and surrounding area. We have a committed & dedicated team of teachers & support staff who work tirelessly to extend the children's learning opportunities, our aim is to inspire our children to believe in themselves and what they may achieve in the future; Unlocking Potential; Transforming Lives. This is an exciting opportunity to work within our wonderful key stage two team and make a real difference to children's lives and provide them with a fantastic education.

We are part of the REAch2 Academy Trust (www.reach2.org) which provides the school with excellent support through training, coaching and mentoring.
