

Job Advertisement KS1 Class Teacher

Are you an outstanding KS1 Teacher? Or have the potential to be outstanding? Are you looking to start or continue your teaching career in a thriving school that will provide you with continuous professional development, challenge and support?

Well, perhaps we could be just what you are looking for and you could be the one for us! We are particularly looking for teachers with enthusiasm and commitment who have very high expectations of all their pupils.

Darrick Wood Infant and Nursery School is a vibrant, three-form entry infant school with 270 pupils aged between 5 - 7 years. The school is located in Orpington (London Borough of Bromley) within beautiful grounds. We believe that every child is different and that everyone deserves the opportunity to be happy, secure and successful. The school is surrounded by large grounds and benefits from a spacious and attractive site with a good deal of green space which enables us to take our learning outside, including through Forest School sessions.

This is an extremely exciting opportunity to work within a highly successful team at Darrick Wood Infant and Nursery School to raise quality and standards, ensuring that all pupils reach their full potential. The school was graded 'Outstanding' in 2009 and has had subsequent outstanding accredited challenge partner reviews. The school is also heavily oversubscribed in each year group. Darrick Wood Infant School joined Chancery Education Trust in September 2017.

We are currently seeking to appoint inspiring and dynamic KS1 Class Teacher (responsibility negotiable) to join our committed and enthusiastic team.

To be successful you will:

- hold QTS or equivalent
- have day to day working experience and understanding of EYFS and KS1
- model and disseminate high quality teaching pedagogy and practice to secure consistently good or outstanding teaching and learning for our children
- have high principles and expectations of achievement and behaviour
- be able to maintain a dynamic and inspiring learning environment
- have good interpersonal skills and able to work well as part of our staff team
- be committed to on-going professional development
- contribute to the wider life at the Academy
- share the Trust's ethos of improving educational standards and the life chances of young people;

Darrick Wood Infant & Nursery School joined Chancery Education Trust in September 2017.

Chancery Education Trust offers huge professional development prospects across all the Chancery Education Trust Academy sites.

Working for Chancery Education Trust, means you can be assured that you will be contributing to our mission to enable every child to achieve their best. All our academies work collaboratively to share best practice and are supported by the expertise within the central team to enable them to focus on teaching and learning.

As a Chancery Education Trust employee, you will receive excellent opportunities for career progression and access to bespoke CPD to enhance your professional growth. At the heart of what we do is staff development and we are very proud of our Investors in People Gold Accreditation, which is awarded to only 2% of institutions, nationally.

Visits to the school are warmly welcomed; please contact Mr Ben Broughton, Assistant Head on 01689 857278 or email admin@darrickwoodinfants.com to arrange a mutually convenient appointment.
