Hackney New Primary School is looking for a qualified KS1 class teacher to join our team. We have a dedicated and established teaching team and are looking for a qualified teacher to complement the school team. Hackney New Primary School is an outstanding and exciting school striving to create something unique and special in the heart of London. Our school community shares family-style meals together and works closely with local organisations to ensure the very best relationships with our community. Hackney New Primary School is part of Eko Trust and works closely with colleagues from other Eko schools to continue the best practice for our children.

At Eko Trust, every member of our community is empowered to learn, to be ambitious and to be resilient.

- Our schools are vibrant and multi-cultural centres of learning.
- Our children are happy and love actively learning.
- We are proud of our schools and excited by what we can achieve together.

The successful candidate will be:

- a highly motivated person, constantly striving to make a difference to outcomes for children
- Committed to excellence, inclusion and high expectations
- Passionate about enabling every child to fulfill his/her potential
- An effective organiser with good interpersonal skills
- Flexible and able to respond to change quickly and effectively
- Proactive team member committed to building an 'exceptional' school

We provide:

- high quality, personalised induction
- excellent tailored professional development opportunities which enable staff to develop their own practice and impact others nationally
- a highly engaged staff who work hard together and thrive in a happy, friendly environment
- A commitment to your career aspirations and professional development
- A strong leadership team
- A clear vision for the future – please see our website www.hackneynewprimaryschool.org

Hackney New Primary School is committed to the safeguarding of all children, through its policies, practice and monitoring procedures and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. A criminal record check via the DBS will be undertaken for the successful candidate.

If shortlisted there will be an observation, written task, interview and a planning activity. During the interview your motives for working in a school setting will be explored. Knowing that racism, sexism and other forms of discrimination exist, we promote justice, fairness and equality in all areas of school life. All backgrounds and groups, including those with disabilities, are welcome to apply.

Please note: CV applications will not be considered. Please contact Nurzahan Mohammed (hnpinfo@ekotrust.org.uk) for further details and for an application pack.
