What education looks like at CEC

We believe in a learning model that uses the concepts of Working Memory and Long-Term Memory

Teaching is a complex system. The challenge for teachers is to extend the implications for teaching an individual to teaching a whole class of students, each with their own schema-forming brains and their unique set of knowledge and experience, this is captured in the writing of Graham Nuthall.

We recognise that all pupils have different starting points and therefore teachers need to pitch lessons to the top but provide appropriate scaffolding to ensure all students can work towards the end point. Understanding the needs of students in the classroom is essential in creating a safe culture where everyone can feel safe to fail. Understanding the starting point of all students and finding the balance between support and challenge is essential.

We believe that the key is the process of setting up classroom routines so that teachers are engaging, enabling every child to succeed. At the CEC and TWT, we have applied relevant educational research principles to ensure the above and support the delivery of Willingham's Learning Model.

Our Community

Award Winning Community Hub, EX5 Alive

Cranbrook is a new town built North East of Exeter. With an average age of 30, Cranbrook is the youngest town in the UK. With 8,000 people living in Cranbrook, due to increase to 28,000 in the coming years, building houses has been a key priority for the area. Unfortunately, sufficient infrastructure and services are still yet to be established. Furthermore, there is a lack of physical space in the town meaning many of the additional services desired and required are extremely difficult to run. This has resulted in a growing shortfall of EYFS spaces which currently sits at approximately 30%.

At CEC, we are proud to have an award winning Community Hub, EX5 Alive, which sees this as an extraordinary opportunity to think differently about how we approach our town's needs. Solutions-focussed and uniquely based within Cranbrook Education Campus, an all-through educational setting, we have been and continue to provide a Cradle-to-Career approach. This means building opportunities for families where support starts at an early age and can continue to be provided as children grow to be young independent adults. Supported by The Feltham Convening Partnership, and now a beacon of community hub work within the Ted Wragg Trust and across the South West, EX5 Alive has already made huge strides in supporting Cranbrook.

Among many successful strategies, this has included:

- Building key partnerships to support parental understanding and engagement in conversations around mental health leading to significant improvements in school attendance figures.
- Building mental health and increasing emotional health across the community through access to workshops, workouts and referrals for further support.
- Increasing access to food through our evening and night food bank.

Much of our success has come through ensuring best and research-based practice, nurturing healthy relationships with community members and operating through an asset-based lens approach. Echoed by Hughes and Bomber (2013) "Quality relationships provide the necessary vehicles for adaption and recovery and every relationship has the power to confirm or challenge everything that has gone before".

We are proud to be a school rooted in our community. We believe our award-winning community hub makes CEC and Cranbrook a very special place to work and grow.

Working in the South West

Our diverse county is the ultimate destination to live and work. With two thriving cities, Exeter and Plymouth, Devon is full of history, culture and wonderful places to eat and enjoy the arts.

Our county boasts the beautiful and varied coastlines of the Jurassic Coast in the east, the Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty in the north and the English Riviera with its palm trees in the south.

Along with two National Parks, waterways and countryside, Devon has something for everyone, whether it is music, history, food or, for the more energetic, walking, cycling, climbing or surfing on some of the UK's best waves. Our county really has it all.

Devon – simply a fantastic place to live.

Growing great people

Our aim is to be the greatest place to work in the South West. We know that to succeed in our mission, we must invest in and grow great people. Our comprehensive suite of development opportunities are available for everyone, whether you are just starting in your career or an experienced leader, there will be a development pathway to suit you.

Tim Rutherford – Deputy CEO

We know to be the greatest place to work we must welcome great people, retain great people and develop great people.

In our Trust, we are committed to nurturing a workplace where our employees feel that they belong. We believe that the culture of our trust thrives when individual differences are embraced so that everyone feels comfortable and confident in being who they are. This is supported through ensuring inclusivity in culture and equity in opportunities. We are committed to high quality and reflective employment practice so that we attract, retain and grow employees from diverse backgrounds and communities.
