nishkamprimaryschool birmingham

Job Description

JOB TITLE:	KS2 Classroom Teacher (Maternity Cover)
HOURS OF WORK:	Full Time – Temporary Maternity Cover
SCHOOL:	Nishkam Primary School
RESPONSIBLE TO:	Head of Primary School

The following generic teacher job description is provided for information only. Final job descriptions will be agreed between NST and the individual to reflect experience, actual duties and responsibilities.

Responsible for: Working with colleagues and, where appropriate, managing other staff to achieve effective practice in the classroom.

Purpose of the post:

- To facilitate and encourage learning which enables pupils to achieve high standards, grow as individuals and nurture their virtues.
- To share and support the corporate responsibility for the well-being, education and discipline of all pupils.
- To contribute to the provision of holistic education and the positive experiences which can help pupils to achieve their purpose in life, fulfil their potential and become good citizens.
- To contribute to the religious, spiritual, moral, social, linguistic and cultural development of children.
- To contribute to the wider activities of the school and your specific department. Undertake reasonable work that is not specified in this job description.

Professional Values and Practice:

All staff are a part of the Nishkam Education team and are required to support the ethos, mission and values of the Trust. You will also be expected to work closely with colleagues at other Nishkam Schools to support strategic development and share good practice, working collaboratively to ensure that the Nishkam Schools are presented in a positive perspective.

As well delivering the outcomes for teaching and learning, and raising their educational achievement, you will have high expectations of all pupils, promoting their religious, linguistic, social, cultural and emotional needs. We will also work collaboratively to meet the needs of colleagues, parents/carers, families and pupils. Our work with others should demonstrate respect and compassion and promote positive values and attitudes.

You will be required to work within the statutory frameworks and NST policies, participate in continuous professional development, take increasing responsibility for their own personal professional development and engage actively in the performance management process.

Areas of Responsibility and Key Tasks:

Carrying out the duties of a class teacher as outlined in the teaching standards.

Personal Specification

The Person Specification is related to the requirements of the post as determined by the Job Description. Short listing is carried out on the basis of how well you meet the requirements of the Person Specification. You should refer to these requirements when completing your application.

Job related knowledge, attributes and skills	Candidates should: • Demonstrate an understanding of and sympathy with, the Sikh faith based ethos of the school; • Have DfE Qualified Teacher Status; • Possess recognised, relevant qualifications relating to the post for which they are applying or are appointed to; • Have knowledge and experience of the curriculum and of good primary teaching practice; • Demonstrate the ability to meet the educational, spiritual, moral, emotional social and cultural development of every child in the group or class allocated to the professional at any time in the academic year
Experience and Abilities	Candidates/Employees should: • Demonstrate commitment to the involvement of parents in their children's learning; • Demonstrate a sound understanding of assessment and pupil progress; • Demonstrate an understanding of children's development and the ability to recognise and respond to the individuality of children in their care; • Demonstrate knowledge and experience of curriculum planning, with particular; regard to the phase being applied for/in which the employee is deployed at any time • Demonstrate a willingness to work across the primary age range; • Demonstrate an awareness of national trends and developments; • Demonstrate an understanding of effective teaching techniques • Demonstrate evidence of high expectations of all pupils; • Demonstrate an understanding of working in an urban, culturally diverse school; • Demonstrate clear and balanced views about pupil welfare and discipline; • Demonstrate a commitment to the integration of children with special educational needs and disabilities in the mainstream school environment; and • Demonstrate evidence of commitment to personal and professional development
Leadership skills	Candidates should: • Demonstrate an awareness of the process of inspection, monitoring and observation and how these processes contribute to the overall evaluation of a school; • Demonstrate an understanding of the role of Governors • Demonstrate a willingness to lead a subject area or age group, and a willingness to work with the senior leadership of the school to monitor and develop and deliver improvement plans for that area; and • Demonstrate an understanding of how best to support and develop other adults
Personal Qualities	Candidates should: • Through their actions demonstrate a support for the aims and ethos of the school; • Demonstrate a commitment to work closely with families to meet the needs of all children; • Demonstrate the ability and commitment to work closely with, and support the Principal and Head teacher both during and beyond the school day; • Demonstrate a strong commitment to supporting the importance of the school as part of the community; • Possess well developed interpersonal skills and the ability to develop and maintain good relationships with pupils, staff and parents; • Demonstrate personal and professional integrity; • Possess the ability to work under pressure whilst maintaining a cheerful disposition; • Demonstrate evidence of excellent organisational skills; • Demonstrate evidence of a flexible attitude towards responsibilities in school; • Demonstrate evidence of contribution to all areas of school life; • Demonstrate evidence of setting a good example to children in personal presentation and conduct; • Possess an understanding of balance with a life outside school; • Possess a sense of humour