A passionate, nurturing teacher who can:

- embrace and live our values
- make a positive difference to the lives of our children
- demonstrate aspiration for all children's progress and achievement
- motivate and make learning fun and relevant for each child to ensure the best outcomes
- be a team player and develop within a supportive and motivated team
- happily contribute to our flourishing school's development
- reflect, with a good sense of humour and understanding of how to achieve a life balance.

In return we can offer:

- Happy, well-motivated children
- a supportive, well resourced, open plan, team teaching environment
- effective team planning and an exciting curriculum
- support for career progression and professional development
- a fantastic working/learning environment both inside and within the grounds of our school
- curriculum leadership opportunities
- commitment to supporting work/life balance

Come and how our school is different! Visits prior to application are actively encouraged. A job description and application form are available from the school website.
