

KS2 Teacher – Part-time (0.6)

(Pay scale: TMS 1-6)

"Teachers know their pupils well and have developed effective relationships based on trust and mutual respect" OFSTED February 2019

We are seeking an enthusiastic and self-reflective teacher for a Year 3 class, who is passionate about providing a high quality and challenging curriculum for all the children. This is a part-time position, three days per week (Wednesday, Thursday & Friday) starting April 2022 (Term 5).

We can offer the opportunity to work within a supportive team, who are committed to providing inclusive, high quality teaching and learning. You would be required to lead a curriculum area and share your expertise with colleagues.

We can offer you:

- The opportunity to work in a Good school, which is part of a successful MAT;
- A wide variety of resources to support teaching and learning;
- A professional and supportive staff team;
- Supportive parents and governing body;
- Excellent opportunities for staff development and networking, as part of the ODST Hub;
- A school set in an enviable location.

As a school, we are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expect all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. This post involves the type of work with children and young people that requires applicants to undertake a Disclosure Barring Service check. The possession of a criminal record will not necessarily prevent an applicant from obtaining this post. All applications and disclosures are considered confidentially and according to the nature of the role.

Start date: 25th April 2022

Closing date: Friday 14th January 2022

Interviews: Tuesday 1st February 2022
