November 2023

Dear prospective applicant,

Thank you for expressing an interest in the advertised position at our 'outstanding school' (Ofsted 2014).

As the lead school in Willow Tree Academy, we are looking for an exceptional, enthusiastic and committed colleague who is willing to go 'over and above' to ensure that our amazing pupils get a profound primary experience. We are continuous in our unrelenting ambition for the young people we serve and you will not find the slightest hint of complacency.

We pride ourselves on having a strong ethos and our work is centred around our core values of Passion, Positivity, Aspiration, Commitment and Tenacity and what it means to be a Herringthorpe Learner. We place real emphasis on traditional values of being respectful, wearing uniform with pride, having good manners and showing gratitude. As a result of this approach, you will find a school which has the highest standards of behaviour, a calm atmosphere and positive staff-pupil relationships. We see this as everyone's responsibility and all staff, including those who are not classroom based, help support and uphold these values with our pupils.

The aim of all colleagues at Herringthorpe Junior School is to ensure our children become 'Herringthorpe Learners' and are fit and ready for their future beyond our school. We work hard as a team to ensure that all staff and pupils feel happy, valued, and listened to. We are a multicultural and diverse school and find every opportunity to celebrate and promote this - everyone is welcome here at Herringthorpe.

If you share our desire to make a difference to the life chances of our pupils and feel that Herringthorpe Junior School is the right community for you, we would very much welcome your application!

We welcome visits to the school from prospective candidates so please contact herringthorpe@willowtreeacademy.org to arrange a time.

Yours sincerely

Mrs Mandy Adams
Head of School
