ASPIRATION ACHIEVEMENT ACCEPTANCE RESPECT RESILIENCE REWARD

Lead Practitioner & Second in Charge -
Humanities
LPR4-8
September 2026

We wish to appoint, for September 2026 an experienced and outstanding Lead Practitioner, or aspiring Lead Practitioner and Second in Charge in Humanities to join our successful Humanities department.

'Warm and respectful relationships characterise life at this school. Pupils are happy and safe. Pupils value the support staff give them.' Ofsted, March 2023.

Strong effective teaching and a stimulating environment characterise our school. Children of all abilities experience success, progress well, develop feelings of self-worth, and participate in a variety of interesting, enriching experiences in and out of the classroom. Our pupils are supported to grow into responsible, self-disciplined young people ready for the next stage of their lives. We welcome staff who are enthusiastic and enjoy teaching and working hard with and for our young people. In return, we invest hugely in staff support and development.

Bartley Green offers its staff benefits including

- a supportive working environment and team ethos,
- continuous professional development opportunities,
- free on site car parking,
- free annual flu jab,
- employee assistance programme,
- easy access to Birmingham city centre and the Worcestershire countryside
- Cycle to Work Scheme
- Generous Pension Plan
- Enrichment and extracurricular – able to get involved in a wide range of activities from Music, to Sports, to DoE.

Application forms are available on the school website www.bartleygreen.org.uk or by contacting Vicky Lowe (HR & Recruitment Administrator) at recruitment@bartleygreen.org.uk

Informal enquiries or visits are most welcome.

Closing date: Friday 15th May 2026 (9am) however applications will be considered on receipt.

Bartley Green School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and all staff and volunteers must share its commitment. Rehabilitation of offenders: This post is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 and the amendments to the Exceptions Order 1975, 2013 and 2020. Which means that when applying for certain jobs and activities certain spent convictions and cautions are 'protected', so they do not need to be disclosed to employers, and if they are disclosed, employers cannot take them into account. Further information about filtering offences can be found in the DBS filtering guide. The successful applicant will require an enhanced disclosure from the Disclosure and Barring Service. An online search will also be carried out as part of due diligence on all short-listed candidates.

This post is covered by Part 7 of the Immigration Act (2016) and therefore the ability to speak fluent and spoken English is an essential requirement for this role

Bartley Green School positively welcomes applications from everyone and values diversity in our workforce.
