JOB DESCRIPTION – LEAD PRACTITIONER

Outcomes	Achieve outstanding exam outcomes for your own exam classes. Contribute to improving the exam outcomes of your faculty by improving the quality of teaching and learning within the faculty. Contribute to improving the exam outcomes of the academy by supporting the senior leadership team in improving the quality of teaching and learning across the whole academy. Responsibility • Be a role model within the academy both as a professional and as a classroom practitioner • Have a responsibility for either a faculty wide or academy wide area • Contribute to the planning and delivery of teaching and learning focused parent workshops
Support	Support initial teacher trainees within your own faculty and across the whole academy. Support classroom teachers to improve their practice within your own faculty and across the whole academy. Support faculty leaders, subject directors and senior leadership teams in raising standards across the alliance.
CPD	Plan and lead a Teaching and Learning Community group. Contribute to the planning and delivery of academy INSET including the Trust Joint INSET day. Plan and deliver CPD sessions as part of the Redhill Teaching School Alliance CPD offer.