Welcome from our CEO

Leigh Academies Trust (LAT) is one of the largest and most successful school groups in England. Starting in 2008 in Dartford, the Trust is now responsible for 33 academies of all types, educating over 24,000 pupils, employing almost 4,000 talented staff and with access to an annual income of over £250m. Our Ofsted track record is impressive. Currently, 56% of our academies are considered to be “Outstanding” whilst inspected as part of the Trust.

LAT has remained local with all of its academies located in the South East (Kent, Medway, Bexley and Greenwich), within a one hour drive across the South Thames Corridor. This helps us to share resources and expertise much more easily and offer abundant training and progression opportunities to staff. We invest heavily in our workforce and enjoy strong retention across all job roles. The Trust has embedded various advantages which mean that LAT is an excellent place to develop a career in education. This includes being a highly inclusive employer which celebrates the diversity of its workforce.

Our scale and experience means we have been able to develop several well-chosen approaches to running schools which we know work well. These include:

- A small school approach to education where larger academies are organised into colleges. This ensures high quality pastoral care for pupils.
- A world class digital strategy where all staff and pupils have their own device making teaching, learning and operations efficient and highly impactful.
- Disruption free learning and a “warm strict” approach to behaviour management so that teachers can teach and pupils can learn.
- An all-through International Baccalaureate curriculum equivalent in quality to some of the best fee-paying schools and grammar schools in the UK and further afield.

In addition, The Leigh Institute - which is part of LAT - is responsible for Kent and Medway Training, one of the region’s biggest initial teacher training organisations, a large teaching school hub called Thames Gateway and an accredited apprenticeship provider. This powerful organisation trains, develops and supports 1,000s of teachers, support staff and leadership teams across the region each year. Our future plans are found in our Vision 2030, available on our website.

Our Mission: Education for a better world

At Leigh Academies Trust, our vision is to transform lives through education. We strive to ensure that every young person - regardless of background - has access to an outstanding education and the opportunity to thrive in an ever-changing world.

We are guided by four core values that shape everything we do:

- We care – about our pupils and their families through our human scale approach to education, our staff and their well-being and the world around us, driven by our high ideals and strong moral values.
- We have boundless ambition – to achieve excellence for all and create confident young adults with high levels of resilience and integrity.
- We work together – as one team because we are greater than the sum of our parts. We foster an enterprising culture through global collaboration with partners in business and education.
- We keep getting better – using our 'can-do' attitude and research informed approach to continuous improvement and innovation.

This shared vision unites our academies and teams, creating a strong, collaborative environment where staff and students can flourish.

Job Description

Leigh Academy
Ebbsfleet

Job Title: Lead Practitioner - Humanities

Reports to: Principal

Location: Leigh Academy Ebbsfleet

Leigh Academies Trust is a highly successful multi-academy trust. Our model of education enables students to reach their full potential, transforming their lives and ultimately the communities in which they live.

Main purpose of role:

- To raise standards and develop teaching and learning in Humanities across the Academy.
- To ensure that the aims of the Academy are effectively translated into high quality classroom practice both within the subject and in general across the Academy.
- To assist in developing, implementing, monitoring and evaluating:
 - a. Teaching and learning
 - b. Curriculum planning
 - c. Continuing professional development
 - d. Team building
- To promote and ensure positive pupil approaches to learning through:
 - a. High expectations
 - b. Exceptional teaching
 - c. A stimulating learning environment
 - d. An emphasis on learning
- To be a key leader in establishing systems and procedures to develop teaching and learning.
- To consistently deliver high quality lessons, promote proven strategies, and support colleagues - both on a 1-2-1 basis and in groups - to develop pedagogy and practice in order to improve the quality of learning and teaching with the specific aim of securing outstanding teaching and student outcomes.
- To work with the Director of Learning for Humanities on all aspects above and to respond to Academy priorities within Humanities as directed by the senior leader responsible for Humanities.
- To work with the Director of Learning for Humanities to devise action plans in order to close achievement gaps and ensure that these are being implemented appropriately.
- To work with and report to the Assistant Principal for teaching and learning to monitor, evaluate and review the quality of education across the academy. You will support planning and delivering the whole school Continuing Professional Development (CPD) to improve teaching and learning.

This job description should be read in conjunction with the Job Description for Teachers, which outlines the core professional duties and expectations of all teaching staff. The responsibilities below are in addition to those, and are specific to the role of Lead Practitioner.

Key areas of responsibility

Staff

- To oversee the professional development of staff in Humanities across the Academy and provide advice on appropriate INSET.
- Ensure that staff are kept well-informed of recent developments in Humanities.
- Observe the teaching of Humanities teachers, give constructive feedback and monitor this to ensure that it leads to improved standards in the classroom.
- Allocate responsibilities and duties so as to ensure continuing professional development.
- Design, implement and evaluate an in-house, blended approach to teachers learning through strategies such as coaching, in-class training and 1-2-1 mentoring sessions.

Curriculum

- To support the Director of Learning for Humanities in developing and reviewing the Humanities curriculum and schemes of work at Key Stage 3 (KS3), Key Stage 4 (KS4) and Key Stage 5 (KS5).
- Coordinate preparation, delivery and evaluation of schemes of work for the Academy in accordance with the National Curriculum requirements; with a particular focus on challenge, pace, high order questioning and thinking skills, as well as writing and speaking opportunities to facilitate students accessing the highest grades at KS3, KS4 and KS5.
- Provide leadership and guidance on the production of learning resources.
- Monitor and evaluate to ensure that there is consistency in terms of learning experiences for students within each of the small schools in accordance with the Academy policy and the Academy's criteria for effective teaching and learning.
- Provide guidance on exam specifications and delivery time frames, and additional related qualifications that could be included in the curriculum offered at the Academy.
- Lead and encourage critical professional dialogue within the Humanities department.
- To liaise with agencies outside the Academy to enrich and broaden the curriculum.

Assessment

- To issue guidance in order to develop rigour and accuracy in grading at KS3, KS4 and KS5 across the Academy. To ensure that there are appropriately regular opportunities for students' work to be accurately graded throughout each half term.
 - a. Identify and implement strategies for raising standards at all key stages in line with the latest accountability measures.
 - b. To develop assessment for learning with Humanities staff across the Academy in line with Academy policy.
 - c. To ensure that there are appropriate and accessible graded examples of students' work from across the Academy to be used for the purposes of moderation, training, and as evidence of standards in your subject area.

Communication

- To provide subject-specific information to the senior leader responsible for Humanities whenever required.

Resources and the Learning Environment

- To ensure that the learning environment is well-ordered, safe and stimulating, leading by example to encourage a high standard of display work in classrooms and communal areas with a clear emphasis on celebrating success, sharing achievements and the importance of both literacy and numeracy.
- To advise on the purchase of appropriate and stimulating resources and ensure that these are used.
- Ensure that Humanities staff across the Academy make full use of the range of resources at their disposal, in particular, the use of Chromebooks.

Safeguarding of students and Duty of Care

All staff, regardless of role, level of seniority and location, have a responsibility to ensure the highest levels of safeguarding and promoting the welfare of our pupils, and we expect all our staff and volunteers to share this commitment. We must collectively create an environment where children feel safe to learn, play, and grow. Children should feel comfortable in their surroundings and know that they can approach any responsible adult with any problems or concerns.

All staff must be able to identify any children who are at risk of harm, and know the characteristics of abuse or neglect. If you suspect or confirm harm then it's essential you know what actions to take.

Annual safeguarding training is offered to all staff at Leigh Academies Trust, and it is the staff member's responsibility to be aware of the most up to date guidance documented in the Keeping Children Safe in Education document \(Department of Education\).

Notes
