The Governors are keen to appoint a Lead Practitioner in Science. This is an exciting opportunity for an outstanding teacher to be able to take the lead on teaching and learning initiatives and develop high quality pedagogy using evidenced based research. Science is a successful faculty with highly dedicated staff and motivated students. The successful candidate should be an exemplar of teaching skills, leading the improvement of teaching and learning, planning and resourcing, as well as taking a leadership role in developing, implementing and evaluating policies that contribute to whole school improvement. The successful candidate will also lead on coaching and CPD programs for all staff, working collaboratively across the King Edward VI MAT and support ITT and ECT teachers with their induction. Completion of, or a willingness to complete the Lead Practitioners Accreditation is required.

King Edward VI Handsworth Wood Girls' Academy is an 11-18 comprehensive school in the north-west of Birmingham. Our student intake is from a variety of ethnic backgrounds, making for a very harmonious and happy school. We truly believe that high aspirations can transform the life chances of our students, underpinned by our drive to develop in our students the universal values of Scholarship, Character and Community.

Further details and application forms can be downloaded from the website

(<https://www.hwga.org.uk/the-academy/staff/vacancies/>). Applications can only be considered if they are on an Academy Trust application form. Completed application forms to be returned to recruitment@hwga.org.uk. Early application is encouraged as we will review applications throughout the advertising period and reserve the right to close the advert early.

This school is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff to share this commitment. An enhanced DBS check is required for all successful applicants.
