(Starting salary of
£49,000 rising to £53,000
per annum)

Success through collaboration

SECONDARY MIDDLE LEADER REQUIRED SEPTEMBER 2021

We seek to recruit a suitable individual to support SEND across the Trust in respect of the Secondary Phase. As the Designated Secondary Lead, you will be required to apportion your time appropriately to support the provision associated with each secondary setting based on demonstrable need.

This is a significant management role. Applicants must have achieved QTS, QTLS or EYTS and be able to evidence this with an appropriate certificate. Not only is this a statutory requirement but is also the entry qualification for the Diploma course – the National Award for Special Educational Needs. The successful candidate will need to complete the Diploma course and achieve full accreditation.

Working with other outstanding professionals, you will be part of a strong and dynamic learning community. Therefore, if you have a proven track record in the classroom with a passion for SEND provision and high quality support, then we would like to hear from you.

The successful candidate must demonstrate:

- Vision, energy and inter-personal skills required to inspire, motivate and lead others.
- Ability and tenacity to translate vision into operational reality through ambitious plans for continuous improvement.
- Exemplary classroom teaching and a firm commitment to high expectations and academic achievement.
- Personal attributes that engender respect and trust from all stakeholders within the wider community and beyond.

The successful candidate can expect to:

- Play a pivotal role in developing operational leadership into the next phase of development.
- Drive forward an innovative agenda that seeks to improve the life chances of students living locally.
- Work within an inclusive ethos where students are encouraged to be positive, responsive and develop a genuine desire to succeed.
- Experience a wide range of leadership responsibilities together with the professional support to be successful in the role.

If you wish to be part of our exciting future, please contact

Shireena Lalli, Administrative Officer – Personnel via email at slalli@trhat.org. You are asked to enclose your completed application form and curriculum vitae, with a covering letter describing why you are the ideal candidate for this role.

Closing date: Monday 21st June 2021

The Rosedale Hewens Academy Trust is a high performing education provider, with a proven track record of success in Hayes and the immediate area. The Trust sponsors a group of primary, secondary and specialist schools in the London Borough of Hillingdon.

The Trust is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff to engage in this commitment and responsibility at all times.
