

Saint John Wall Catholic School – A Catholic School For All

'To educate each and every unique child in our care to hear and respond to what God calls them to be'

Lead Teacher of Languages (MFL, EAL and Community Languages)

Saint John Wall Catholic School is an oversubscribed 11-16 school with a diverse population, serving the community of North West Birmingham. Over 50% of our pupils qualify for additional Pupil Premium funding, and over 60% of our pupils speak English as an Additional Language.

The Role

- To support the Catholic Ethos of the school and to safeguard the well-being of all pupils in school.
- To raise standards of pupil attainment and achievement within the curriculum area and to monitor and support pupil progress.
- To be accountable for pupil progress and development within the Languages Department (MFL, EAL and Community Languages).
- To develop and enhance the teaching practice of others.
- To ensure the provision of an appropriately broad, balanced, relevant and differentiated curriculum for pupils studying in the department, in accordance with the aims of the school and the curricular policies determined by the Governing Body and Headteacher.
- To support the Head of Humanities and Languages with leading, managing and developing the subject/curriculum area.
- To effectively manage and deploy support staff, financial and physical resources within the department to support the designated curriculum portfolio.
- To co-ordinate the Quality of Education provided for students in MFL.
- To lead on whole school EAL Quality of Education, including professional development for teachers, monitoring and intervention to ensure positive outcomes for EAL students.
- To liaise with colleagues and external providers to enable students who speak community languages to gain a qualification where available.
