Inspire Learning Trust is a Multi Academy Trust based in Rotherham which also includes Oakwood High School, Sitwell Junior School, Thomas Rotherham College and Winterhill School.

Oakwood High School is an over-subscribed 11-16 High School with a strong emphasis on respect for all; we are a 'well led', 'good' school where 'pupils enjoy attending' and 'the vast majority of parents would recommend'.

We are looking for a well-qualified and experienced candidate who will join an enthusiastic, supportive and successful school as a Leader of Learning and Teacher of Business Studies and Computer Science within a highly successful and effective team within our Innovate Learning Zone (Engineering, Design and Technology, Food and Nutrition, Business Studies and Computer Science).

We seek

- An excellent, creative and enthusiastic teacher with the ambition to attain the highest standards in teaching and learning throughout their role.
- A collaborative and driven practitioner who thoroughly enjoys teaching their subjects and understands the importance in contributing to our pupils' wider development.

Candidates will be truly committed to supporting pupils to progress and achieve, have high aspirations for the pupils' success and will contribute to ongoing planning with imaginative and dynamic ideas. To enhance pupils' learning and create independence, all pupils and staff are provided with an electronic device.

Our school has a focus on delivering a core curriculum as a priority to support all learning; all teachers are required to deliver and support both literacy and numeracy strategies alongside their specialism/s.

We Offer:

- A supportive and successful school where staff work in a way that encourages a positive work environment that is solution focused and proactive for all.
- A school with a way of working that encourages a positive work environment that is solution focused and proactive for all.

We offer a positive working environment, we care about our learners, and we care about our staff, all of whom know and appreciate that. The successful candidate will have the opportunity to be part of this, contributing to this culture and developing it further.

Job Description and Person Specification

Main Purpose of Job

Your primary focus will consist of supporting Innovate Coordinator and SLT to deliver the following three core areas in Business Studies and Computer Science: curriculum development; raising standards of teaching and learning and the leadership and accountability of staff. To be successful in this we believe you should have a proven track record of excellent classroom results and experience of motivating and leading others to achieve excellence. Individual responsibilities within the Subject Excellence Plan will be negotiated to reflect the specific skills of the post holder.

In addition, all Leaders of Learning, (under the guidance of SLT) are expected to support the development of academy wide quality assurance, teaching, learning and assessment.

Key Accountabilities

Under the direction of SLT the post holder will:

- lead on the effective management and leadership of Business Studies and Computer Science ensuring that the quality of teaching and learning is of a consistently high standard and that all members of staff work towards delivering excellence;
- improve outcomes for pupils and the quality of teaching and learning;
- collaborate with and in the development, implementation and quality assurance of improvement plans;
- collaborate to ensure the delivery of a flexible and innovative curriculum that is responsive to feedback from current pupils, anticipates changes for future pupils and caters for different levels of pupils;
- provide support for the leadership of all relevant staff, ensuring efficient day-to-day management, consistency of policy application and quality assurance.

All teaching staff employed by the Trust are required to discharge their teaching duties with reference to the range of professional duties set out in the Professional Standards for Teachers.

The Job Description should be read alongside the range of professional duties of teachers as set out in the Teachers' Pay and Conditions Document. The postholder will be expected to undertake duties in line with the Teachers' Standards for qualified teachers.

All teaching staff employed by the Trust are required to discharge their teaching duties with reference to the range of professional duties set out in the Professional Standards for Teachers.

The post holder will work in collaboration with a range of staff across the Academy in the discharge of their duties and will at all times work within and contribute to the legal, regulatory and policy frameworks of the Academy and wider Trust

Excellent standards of behaviour, respect and learning depend upon the 'tone' set by all members of the Trust community. We build upon our strengths – together!

For the purposes of this Job Description and Person Specification, Trust is Inspire Learning Trust and all Academies working within the Trust. All duties outlined below are the responsibility of the post holder who will be accountable for delivery. Where there is specific connectivity with another post, or the lead responsibility for an activity lies with another member of staff, this is stated and will be expanded on in the Service Framework and Development plan where appropriate.

8. Effective Behaviours

The Trust looks for evidence from all candidates of effective behaviours which we value and have found to be consistent with high performance. Part of our selection process will be to assess whether candidates can demonstrate that they have exhibited these behaviours in their current or previous employment, education, voluntary or other activity. Candidates are advised to read the following carefully and provide examples of these in the 'Information in Support of the Application' section of the application form. Candidates should be prepared to discuss these in the interview process.

Seeing the Bigger Picture: Understand the strategic drivers for your area of work. Align activities to contribute to wider Trust priorities. Remain alert to emerging issues and trends which might impact your work area. Seek out and share experiences to develop knowledge of the team's business area. Understand how the strategies and activities of the team create value and meet the diverse needs of all stakeholders.

Changing and Improving: Work with others to identify areas for improvement and simplify processes to use fewer resources. Use technology where possible to increase efficiency. Encourage ideas for change from a wide range of sources. Clearly explain the reasons for change to colleagues and how to implement them, supporting individuals with different needs to adapt to change. Encourage an environment where colleagues know that they can challenge decisions and issues safely.

Making Effective Decisions: Understand own level of responsibility and empower others to make decisions where appropriate. Analyse and use a range of relevant, credible information from internal and external sources to support decisions. Invite challenge and where appropriate involve others in decision making. Display confidence when making difficult decisions, even if they prove to be unpopular. Consult with others to ensure the potential impacts on end users have been considered. Present strong recommendations in a timely manner outlining the consideration of other options, costs, benefits and risks.

Leadership: Ensure colleagues and stakeholders have a clear understanding of Trust objectives, activities and time-frames. Take into account different individual needs, views, and ideas, championing inclusion and equality of opportunity for all. Consider the impacts of own and team's activities on stakeholders. Role-model commitment and satisfaction with role. Recognise and praise the achievements of others to drive positivity within the team. Effectively manage conflict, misconduct and non-inclusive behaviour, raising with senior managers where appropriate.

Communicating and Influencing: Communicate in a straightforward, honest and engaging manner, choosing appropriate styles to maximise understanding and impact. Encourage the use of different communication methods, including digital resources and highlight the benefits, including ensuring cost effectiveness. Ensure communication has a clear purpose and takes into account people's individual needs. Share information as appropriate and check understanding. Show positivity and enthusiasm towards work, encouraging others to do the same. Ensure that important messages are communicated with colleagues and stakeholders respectfully, taking into consideration the diversity of interests.

Working Together: Encourage team work within own team and across other departments. Establish professional relationships. Collaborate with these to share information, resources and support. Invest time to develop a common focus and genuine positive team spirit where colleagues feel valued and respect one another. Put in place support for the wellbeing of individuals within the team, including consideration of your own needs. Make it clear to all team members that bullying, harassment and discrimination are unacceptable. Actively seek and consider input of people from diverse backgrounds and perspectives.

Developing Staff and Others: Identify capability gaps for self and team. Ensure development objectives are set and achieved to address any gaps and enable delivery of current and future work. Take time to coach, mentor and develop other colleagues to support succession planning. Promote inclusiveness by respecting different personal needs in the team and use these to develop others. Reflect on own work, continuously seek and act on feedback to improve own and team's performance.

Managing a Quality Service: Develop, implement, maintain and review systems and services to ensure delivery of professional excellence. Successfully deliver high quality education that meets the pupils/student's needs. Identify risks and resolve issues efficiently. Involve a diverse range of colleagues in developing suggestions for improvements. Establish ways to find and respond to feedback about the services provided.

Delivering at Pace: Show a positive approach to keeping the whole team's efforts focused on the top priorities. Promote a culture of following the appropriate procedures to ensure results are achieved on time whilst still enabling innovation. Ensure the most appropriate resources are available for colleagues to use to do their job effectively. Regularly monitor your own and team's work against milestones ensuring individual needs are considered when setting tasks. Act promptly to reassess workloads and priorities when there are conflicting demands to maintain performance. Allow individuals the space and authority to meet objectives, providing additional support where necessary, whilst keeping overall responsibility.

This specification has been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Trust's Equal Opportunities in Employment Policy. We undertake to consider any 'reasonable adjustments' to a job or workplace to counteract any disadvantages a disabled person may have.

Inspire Learning Trust is committed to providing a safe, secure and supportive environment for all members of staff to support their wellbeing, built from effective relationships. As part of our Staff Wellbeing Strategy, we have contracted with the Education Support Partnership, and they provide us with an Employee Assistance Programme to support all staff on a range of issues. We will continue to work with our staff body to improve and ensure that we remain a really good place to work. Our commitment to our pay and conditions is demonstrated by the Trust being recognised as an Accredited Living Wage employer.
