Sir John Thursby Community College

Candidate Information Pack
Learning Mentor Academic

Welcome from the Headteacher

Dear applicant,

I am delighted to welcome you to our thriving and popular school. We are incredibly proud of our students, community, staff and curriculum and we are excited by this appointment. As Headteacher, I am looking to further strengthen our already well established and effective team who secured an extremely positive inspection in April 2023 and continue to show real ambition for the needs of our students and their families.

Our school is characterised by the way we treat our people and through our core values of Ambition, Respect and Belonging. We believe that all members of our school community should be known, valued and loved and we expect all to share this commitment. We are committed to the professional development of our staff, high standards and ambition for our students alongside respect and kindness for all in our SJT family. We are looking for someone who is able to live out these values.

At SJT we value our staff and have worked hard enable all staff to have a good work-life balance in a supportive working environment. In our last staff survey over 97% of staff were both happy working at SJT and proud to be part of the team. We are committed to supporting well-being and development of all our colleagues. We would welcome discussions about flexibility around the advertised role and would be keen to make achievable adjustments for the right candidate.

We encourage visits to our thriving school at your convenience and I would be delighted to welcome you and show you around. Please contact Susan Rigg (s.rigg@sirjohnthursby.lancs.sch.uk) to arrange a convenient appointment.

I am excited about the scope of this post. If you like what you have read, and you feel you align with our values, we look forward to hearing about what you can bring to SJT on our journey to excellence.

Learning Mentor Academic – Internal Inclusion

32.5 hours per week (8:15–15:15 Mon-Fri), TTO + 1 week

Grade 6 pt 11-19 £21,451 - £24,438pa

To start 1st September 2026

“We are characterised by how we treat our people”

We are incredibly proud of our ambitious, curriculum focused, research-driven school. Our vision is built around the principles of ambition, respect and belonging and we have a strong commitment to the development of our staff as outstanding professionals.

We wish to appoint an enthusiastic and organised learning mentor, with the skills and ability to support our students to achieve. The successful candidate will establish positive relationships to promote excellent learning, identify appropriate small group interventions including academic support in Maths, English and Science, analyse data to support referral routes into small group provision and advise the wider school inclusion referral panel. This role will also lead on our Year 7 Transition Support Programme, providing targeted, structured support to ensure all students settle successfully into school life. The provision focuses on developing self-esteem, confidence and learning readiness, enabling pupils to fully access the curriculum and achieve in line with our high expectations for all. This is an exciting opportunity to become part of a hard-working team, committed to ensuring our young people are supported to achieve.

We are looking for a Learning Mentor who will:

- Develop positive relationships with students to assist their progress and attainment
- Plan and implement structured learning activities
- Monitor and review student achievements relating to their progress and individual targets including support with academic progress in core subjects
- Model commitment, resilience, patience, hard work and a good sense of humour
- Support planning to remove barriers to learning
- Support “inclusion by design” in making sure students have access to the curriculum.

Subject expertise in KS4 English, Maths or Science would be an advantage but is not essential. This may have been achieved in a previous role or through other activities such as tuition.

This is a great opportunity for the right candidate to contribute to our work and benefit from an excellent environment, where all staff are encouraged to progress their careers with us. We have great facilities ensuring that our students and staff have the best learning environment in which to achieve. SJT is a very positive community, with our recent staff survey showing that over 95% of our staff enjoy coming to work and are proud to be part of our school.

The successful candidate will fully embrace our ethos of Ambition, Respect and Belonging whilst bringing fresh ideas that will build on current strengths and achievement. A core pillar of our “belonging” ethos is that all in our community are known, valued and loved. We want all staff to share this commitment.
