

Learning Mentor

- Job Title: Learning Mentor
- Salary: Grade D, £19,745 - £21,745 (actual salary with staged incremental increases)
- Hours: Full time, Term time only (32.5 hours per week, 38 weeks per year) or part-time opportunity for the right candidate

Are you passionate about supporting young people to thrive—academically, socially, and emotionally? We are seeking a dedicated and compassionate Learning Mentor to join our team and make a meaningful difference in the lives of our students.

About the Role

As a Learning Mentor, you will work closely with identified students, delivering targeted interventions to small groups and individuals. You will support learners in overcoming barriers to achievement, building confidence, and developing the skills they need to succeed both in and beyond the classroom.

Key Responsibilities

- Plan and deliver structured intervention programmes tailored to students' needs
- Support students in developing positive learning behaviours and resilience
- Work collaboratively with teachers, pastoral staff, and families
- Monitor and evaluate the impact of interventions, adapting approaches where needed
- Foster a safe, inclusive, and supportive environment for all learners

What We're Looking For

- A genuine commitment to supporting young people
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills
- Experience working with children or young people (school-based experience desirable)
- The ability to inspire, motivate, and build positive relationships
- An organised and reflective approach to practice

Our School Values

We are proud of our nurturing and ambitious school culture, built on the values of being:

- Kind – we treat everyone with respect, empathy, and care
- Curious – we embrace learning, creativity, and new ideas
- Resilient – we persevere, overcome challenges, and grow stronger

Why Join Us?

You would be part of a supportive team that values professional development and wellbeing, where your work will have a direct and lasting impact on students' lives.

If you are ready to help shape confident, capable, and compassionate young people, we would love to hear from you.

Apply now and be part of something meaningful.

A good standard of skills in ICT and written/spoken English is essential.
