Welcome

Thank you for interest in the advertised post at the Royal Greenwich Trust School. We are proud to be a part of the University Schools Trust, a cross-borough multi-academy trust which includes St Paul's Way Trust School and St. Paul's Way Trust Foundation School in the London Borough of Tower Hamlets.

As part of the University Schools Trust, we have strong partnerships with 6 world-leading universities and other key organisations. Together we are working collaboratively to deliver the best outcomes and life chances for our students.

Our staff are our greatest asset and we are working with the UST to develop an exciting people strategy, focused on purposeful practice, bespoke professional development and meaningful staff wellbeing.

The UST provides staff in all its schools with a wide range of accredited courses, training opportunities and networking events to support collaborative practice.

Our website will give you a broader picture of our school including key information and a sense of what our community stands for:

Learning Today, Leading Tomorrow

The University Schools Trust

The University Schools Trust (UST) and our schools provide excellent education, derived from exceptional teaching and learning, for thousands of pupils each year.

UST is a unique partnership of six world-leading universities and five sector-leading bodies who are working together to deliver a shared vision of inclusive, high quality and transformational education delivered by schools which are deeply rooted in the communities they serve.

We take a rigorous approach – educating from nursery to university and beyond – to all aspects of our work. Our teaching practice is effective, our students are academically challenged and we use our resources efficiently. The inspirational staff at UST are our greatest resource, and they are encouraged to innovate, share and continually raise our standards.

The UST School of Education, our innovative centre of excellence for school improvement, supports all our teaching and learning. Our university links enable us to co-commission and participate in research to stretch our knowledge of what works and why, and our culture of open collaborative partnership encourages staff to share and learn with other education professionals.

By developing a culture of growth and excellence, the School of Education adds value to our greatest resource – our staff.

Continual Professional Learning

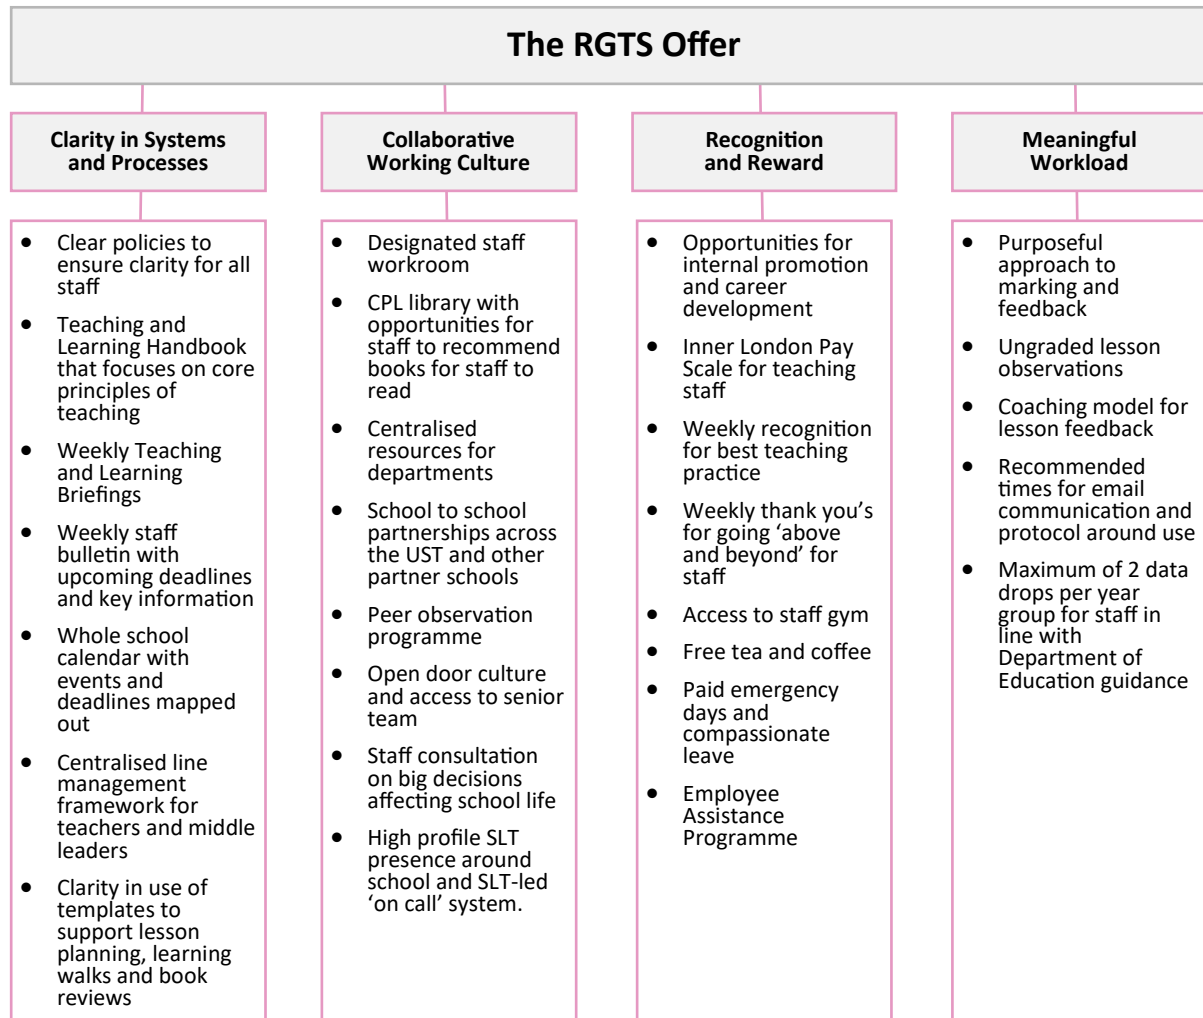

At RGTS we are committed to ensuring that all staff across the school are given opportunities to develop their practice in order to excel as professionals. This is achieved through a programme of internal and external training with an extensive network of training providers across London, our staff have access to the highest quality of training available.

All teachers at RGTS have access to regular opportunities for training and development, both as individuals and as part of their wider faculty teams. This includes:

- Weekly teaching and learning briefings where colleagues share best practice
- Masterclasses for specific areas of pedagogical development
- Twilight sessions for extended faculty-based training
- Learning labs that allow teachers to conduct peer to peer observations
- Coaching from a team of external coaches

Staff Benefits and Wellbeing

RGTS is committed to ensuring that staff are supported and that their wellbeing is considered at school. To that end, strategies to support staff are grouped into four broad areas:

- Clarity in Systems and Processes - staff are given clear direction and that time can be managed effectively.
- Collaborative Working Culture - staff are able to access peer to peer support and work together to minimise personal workload.
- Recognition and Reward - staff feel valued for their contributions to the school and that staff are encouraged to go the extra mile.
- Meaningful Workload - decisions are mindful of staff workload and efficient working practice.

INTRODUCTION

The University Schools Trust (UST) is a unique partnership of six world-leading universities and four sector-leading bodies who are working together to deliver a shared vision of inclusive, high quality and transformational education delivered by schools which are deeply rooted in the communities they serve.

We take a rigorous approach – educating from nursery to university and beyond – to all aspects of our work. Our teaching practice is effective, our students are challenged to achieve their best and we use our resources efficiently. Our values of communication, investigation, participation, networking, scholarship and vision are core to all our work.

As a small, growing and dynamic trust, we are small enough to know and care about the professional development of every single employee, and through our influential trust partners we have increased the scope of our work and the opportunities available to students and our staff.

OUR VISION

To provide transformational educational opportunities for children across London, setting the agenda for social mobility and sector-wide change.

MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission at UST is to improve the outcomes of all our pupils by ensuring we train, recruit and retain the highest calibre of staff across our workforce. Our teaching practice will be research led in partnership with our academic Trust sponsors and the evidence collated will influence local, national and international policy. We will share our best practice with others, extending our success and influence. A critical mass of schools will enable a flexible, school-to-school support structure which will ensure a platform to develop school leaders. Leaders at all levels will provide a systematic succession plan for our schools.

JOB PURPOSE

Main purpose of this role

To increase the rate of student progress across faculties by adding to the capacity of colleagues to deliver good and outstanding lessons.

To provide support for students with a variety of SEND and staff in order to raise standards of achievement for all students, to encourage students to become independent learners, to ensure their safety and welfare and to support the inclusion of students in all aspects of school life.

Responsible for: In and out of class Learning Support

SPECIFIC RESPONSIBILITIES

- To work as directed by the Head of Faculty/SEND/CO and under the supervision of the class teacher, with individual students with SEND and small groups, introducing tasks, monitoring students' work and using a range of strategies to support their learning.
- To help all students to access the full curriculum, and to promote independent learning.
- Use specialist knowledge and skills to develop the Literacy and numeracy skills of students.
- To observe students' progress, and to provide the class teacher with support in assessing student progress.
- To help prepare and maintain a purposeful, orderly and supportive environment for learning.
- To use a range of support methods and resources, including ICT, appropriate to the needs of individuals and groups, as directed by the class teacher/SEND/CO.
- To deliver structured intervention and catch-up programmes to support the development of literacy and/or numeracy skills, and other intervention programmes as directed.
- To support the organisation of the learning environment, including the production, maintenance and storage of resources.
- To be aware of the learning needs of individual students, and to personalise work to meet those needs, contributing to their Student Passports as necessary.
- To provide targeted support to individuals and groups, including those students with EAL or AEN.
- To contribute to the planning and evaluation of learning activities for individuals and groups, liaising with and maintaining effective working relationships with colleagues.
- Meet regularly with the class teacher to discuss student progress and to plan and review support
- To attend formal meetings during contracted hours to discuss students' progress with parents and other professionals as part of the relevant staff group.
- To support the school's aims and ethos.
- Respect the confidentiality of student information and respond sensitively to students' needs, maintaining an awareness of particular learning and physical needs of the students you support at all times.
- To undertake care tasks as appropriate related to student' physical welfare in accordance with LA guidance and procedures.
- To share skills with less-experienced colleagues and trainees on work placements, modelling good practice and providing simple demonstrations.
- To support the HoF / SEND/CO in Faculty administration as required including maintaining individual and group records e.g. SIMS Provisions.
- To accompany students and teachers on educational visits and trips during contracted hours, being responsible for students' safety and engagement in learning activities.
