

The Albany – Bury St Edmunds
Believe. Engage. Achieve.
'Thumbs up to a new beginning!'

The Albany is a school for 66 children and young people aged 11 to 16 who have significant social, emotional and mental health (SEMH) needs. Some of our students are within our Alternative Provision cohort, while others are placed within our SEMH specialist provision. We have a strong family feel, with positive regard for each other, with effective relationships at the centre of all we do. Our curriculum is designed to meet the SEMH and learning needs of our students and enable them to make both academic and personal progress. It is a school where you can be who you are, have your needs met, gain a sense of belonging and achieve.

If you have a belief in inclusion and want to have a positive impact in the lives of our children and families, please join us.
