Cape Cornwall School is seeking an enthusiastic and committed Literacy Learning Mentor to join our English faculty. Applications are invited from candidates who have the skills, experience and dedication to join our highly-motivated and dedicated team: our aim is to ensure high achievement and progress for all through our outstanding curriculum and high quality teaching.

Your key responsibilities will be:

- Under the direction of the Director of Learning—English/SENDCO, to co-ordinate the delivery of a literacy intervention programme across the school.
- To implement the planned support and intervention strategies to groups of target students.
- Provide small group and one-to-one teaching, support and challenge to enable target students to meet their learning goals in literacy.
- To work in partnership with teaching staff, the Assistant Headteacher and SENDCO to implement a range of strategies to assist student progress in literacy across the curriculum.

You will share our commitment to excellence, inclusion and aspiration for every student and will be determined to ensure the very best outcomes for children.
