Anker Valley Primary Academy, part of Fierté Multi-Academy Trust, is a thriving and expanding school at the heart of its community. We welcome applications from individual who will promote our ethos and care for our pupils as the school continues to grow.

Our vision at Anker Valley Primary Academy is rooted in strong partnerships with parents, the local community and the wider trust, working together to enable every child to soar to excellence. With modern facilities and extensive outdoor spaces, we provide rich opportunities for learning within a nurturing, vibrant environment.

We are committed to recognising each child as an individual and ensuring their needs are met so that they can realise their limitless possibilities. In return, we offer a fantastic team, a warm and supportive working environment, and a strong commitment to ongoing professional development.

The role:

Anker Valley Primary Academy are looking for a caring, enthusiastic person to work as part of a team to supervise the children during lunchtime. You should enjoy working with children, relate well to adults, act responsibly, respond quickly to situations with care and warmth.

The role will include supporting pupils during lunchtime in the dining hall and for outside play activities. The role requires a positive, calm approach, promoting positive pupil behaviour, assisting with table manners, administering basic first aid, setting up and clearing away of dining room equipment and help lead play activities during outside play.
