TRANSFORMING LIVES THROUGH LEARNING

Ted Wragg Multi Academy Trust

1938 - 2005

Professor Ted Wragg, in whose memory the Ted Wragg Trust is named, was passionate about education in general, and Exeter in particular, and about how education can transform young people's futures.

The Trust shares Ted Wragg's passion for education and the difference it can make to social mobility, progression, self-esteem and ultimately success, in an increasingly competitive education and jobs market.

The Ted Wragg Multi Academy Trust's ambition is to raise the aspirations of young people and enable them to become fulfilled, life ready, confident and motivated citizens, able to contribute actively to a democratic society. All pupils within the Ted Wragg Multi Academy Trust, regardless of social or cultural background, are motivated to succeed and make outstanding progress because their needs are met through creative, relevant and innovative provision.

THE AIMS OF THE TED WRAGG TRUST ARE TO:

- Work in genuine partnership to strengthen schools and their communities.
- Foster a culture of positive challenge and continual school improvement.
- Provide a common sense of purpose with a focus on outstanding teaching and learning.
- Offer an excellent educational experience so that every pupil fulfils their potential.
- Encourage a rich, dynamic and purposeful range of learning opportunities for all pupils.
- Develop life-enhancing values so that pupils leave school with a sense of self-worth and determination to succeed.

The Ted Wragg Multi Academy Trust currently has nine school members, St Lukes Church of England School, Isca Academy, St James School, Cranbrook Education Campus, West Exe School, Exwick Heights Primary School, Whipton Barton Juniors & Infants and Marine Academy Primary & Secondary schools. In addition we have a partnership management agreement with All Saints Academy in Plymouth. We have trustees from the University of Exeter and Exeter College, as well as from local businesses.

The key aspect that makes our Trust exceptional, is that with our 'Members' we have an inspirational progression route from two outstanding primary schools, through an outstanding FE College, to a world-class, top 10 Russell Group University.
