

Devonport High School for Girls

Opportunity - Nurture - Achieve

Information Pack

Two Meal Time Assistants (Part Time, Permanent)

Dear Applicant

Thank you for your interest in the position of Meal Time Assistant at Devonport High School for Girls (DHSG). I am very proud to be the Head Teacher here in a school where the staff and I value each and every young person as an individual and support them on their journey into adulthood. At Devonport High School for Girls, our mission is to ensure that all of our students receive an exceptional educational experience, through a wealth of opportunities within a nurturing environment, leading to outstanding achievements. This is an exciting time to join our school on our continuing journey to fulfil our mission.

Our teachers, support staff and Trustees are all committed to the DHSG mission and strive to ensure that it becomes a reality for our students. DHSG has a long tradition of excellence and was founded in 1908. We are proud of our history, but our main focus is looking to the future. We are a 21st century grammar school, whilst retaining the best academic traditions.

We are a highly successful and oversubscribed 11-18 selective grammar school and one of the country's highest performing state schools. Our students are absolutely fantastic and we value our staff here, and as such have sensible policies and systems in place.

The positions available is for 6 hours and 15 minutes per week, 1.25pm – 2.40pm Monday to Friday, 38 weeks per year.

In this applicant information pack, you will find a Job Description, and information on how to submit your application.

If you have the energy, skills and motivation to join us and make a difference, I would welcome an application from you. If you would like an informal conversation over the telephone or a visit to look around prior to applying, please get in touch.

Yours faithfully,

L. J. Sargeant
Head Teacher

The City

Plymouth is the largest city south west of Bristol, with a population of approximately 260,000. Located overlooking one of the world's finest natural harbours, it is a city with a proud history.

Recent years, have seen Plymouth develop further as a cultural as well as a commercial, industrial and tourist centre. The city is served by a very active Arts Centre, the Theatre Royal, Plymouth Pavilions and the Life Centre - one of the country's leading sporting venues. Plymouth is also home to the University of Plymouth and Plymouth Marjon University.

There are regular ferry services to Roscoff, France and Santander, Spain. The Devon Expressway (A38) links Plymouth to the national motorway system and the intercity rail journey to London takes approximately three hours.

Plymouth has developed very strong twinning links with cities in Russia (Novorossiysk), Spain (San Sebastian), France (Brest), Poland (Gdynia) and Massachusetts, USA (Plymouth). There are also extensive educational links with many more towns and cities.

The School

Devonport High School for Girls was established in 1908 and is situated on a lovely green site overlooking Plymouth's Central Park, approximately two miles from the city centre. It is an 11-18 selective girls' grammar school and became an Academy in April 2011.

There are approximately 960 students on roll, including around 225 in the Sixth Form. Students come from Plymouth and the surrounding counties of Devon and Cornwall.

The school is part of The Link Partnership (TLP) with four other schools in the city in order to extend curriculum provision for students in the Sixth Form.

In 2005 the school was granted Specialist Schools Status for Languages. We offer several languages including French, German, Spanish, Chinese and Latin. There is a dedicated Language Laboratory, and exchange and business links have been established within the UK and worldwide. The school first achieved International School status in 2006 and has recently received the award for the fifth time.

As well as its strong international links, Devonport High School for Girls has gained a reputation for academic excellence, which helps launch its students on their chosen career paths. The work ethic in the school is very strong and staff are deeply committed to their teaching.

The school places a strong emphasis on developing the whole person and as part of this commitment organises a broad range of enriching extra-curricular opportunities and a comprehensive programme of field visits, with opportunities for students to travel abroad.

The staff of approximately 100 teaching and support staff (a mixture of full-time and part-time employees) are led by the Senior Leadership Team, which consists of the Head Teacher, Deputy Head Teacher, four Assistant Head Teachers and the Business Manager.
