Lunchtime MTA / Playleader Vacancies

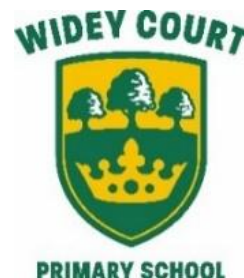

Permanent / Maternity Cover

Base: Widey Court Primary School

Start Date: ASAP

Salary: Connect Grade A

Hours: 5.42 hours per week, 38 weeks per annum
 Monday to Friday, 12:15 – 1:20pm

Widey Court Primary School would like to welcome two highly motivated, enthusiastic and flexible individuals to work within a committed and hard-working team, supporting our pupils during lunchtime. As part of Connect Academy Trust, there may be the opportunity to work in any of our schools in the future. This post is initially situated at Widey Court Primary School.

The post holders will encourage healthy eating, promote good behaviour and support our pupils in developing skills and social interaction (in-house training can be provided).

To help you achieve this, we can offer you:

- Support to develop your skills through school-centred, multi academy trust wide and external continuing professional development and teamwork;
- Wonderful staff and pupils who are keen to learn;
- A very dedicated team with a strong positive ethos;
- A well-resourced and highly professional school.

If you are interested, please complete an online application form available here.

If you have any issues accessing the application form, or if you have any questions relating to the post, please contact Miss G. Dingley, School Operations Lead on 01752 773909 or gdingley@wideycourt.plymouth.sch.uk

Closing date: Monday 14th September 2026 @ 9:00am

Interviews will take place on the week commencing 14/09/2026.

Connect is fully committed to equal opportunities, safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expect all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. An enhanced DBS disclosure will be required to be undertaken and an on-line check of publicly available information will be completed to assess the successful candidate's suitability to work with children.
