Framingham Earl High School has over 100 staff dedicated to providing a First-Class education. The school prides itself in delivering education through strong academic lessons and a nurturing ethos which encapsulates a wide range of community and co-curricular links. The school's most recent Ofsted in 2022 demonstrated the school has an "ambitious curriculum" and that "teachers make appropriate adaptations to support pupils, including those with SEND, to achieve well", resulting in a rating of "Good". GCSE results in 2022 saw the school achieve higher than the national average across a variety of subjects.

Framingham Earl High School holds a range of awards including School of Sanctuary status - this is in recognition of our work to ensure an inclusive and educative environment about difference.

THE ROLE

Framingham Earl High School seeks to appoint an MSA to supervise pupils under the direction of the Communications & Administration Business Support Officer to ensure the safety and well-being of pupils and the adherence with the school procedures while in main eating areas.
