Creating futures through our shared values of excellence, partnership and perseverance

Appointment of Music Teacher

Required for September 2023

Main Scale or Upper Pay Range

Are you a passionate Music teacher? Do you love teaching music and would love the opportunity to teach music all day, every day? Are you a secondary Music Teacher wanting a new challenge? Greet is on a fast-paced journey to excellence and we are looking for a permanent (full-time) music teacher to join us. We are a four-form entry school in the heart of the Sparkhill community. This is an exciting time to join Greet – we have developed an exciting whole school curriculum and are developing innovative teaching and learning practices. We put our energies into the highest levels of professional development and support our staff to be the best.

As a Music teacher you will be teaching music in KS1 / KS2 as part of a team of PPA teachers to release class teachers for planning, preparation and assessment. The team will include other specialist teachers. We have a Music curriculum but would welcome a teacher who would be willing to develop this further using their expertise.

Successful applicants will join our dedicated, hardworking and welcoming team to ensure that 'there are no limits' to what the children at Greet can achieve.

This might not be suitable for an Early Career Teachers (ECTs) as the role will involve working across KS1/KS2 however we would not wish to disadvantage any teacher and would welcome a conversation prior to application. We strongly believe that investment in the early years of a teacher's career is essential in setting them for future success.

We are looking for:

- Teachers with strong subject, curriculum and pedagogical knowledge in teaching music.
- Someone who can build trusting, strong and positive relationships with pupils, with an understanding of children's emotional wellbeing.
- A committed team player with excellent organisational skills.
- Someone who is committed to Greet, and demonstrates our values of Achieving Excellence, Social Intelligence and Ethical Lives.

You will have:

- A degree-level qualification and Qualified Teacher Status.
- Experience of teaching Music.
- High levels of professionalism.
- A desire to continue to develop professionally, undertaking reading and research to inform practice.
- A degree in Music or the Arts would be desirable.

We will offer you:

- Dedicated minimum 10% PPA release time .
- ECT training and support through Ambition Institute, as applicable.
- High-quality CPD through weekly INSETs, coaching in the classroom and training days throughout the academic year

If you are interested, please contact either Ms Tania Yasmin (HT) or Miss Chloe Williams (DHT), at vacancies@greet.createpartnership.org.uk or on 0121 464 3360 to arrange an informal meeting with Ms Yasmin, the Headteacher.

Informal visits to the school are welcomed and recommended. We have the following dates for visits: 21st March after school, and 23rd March after school. If you are not able to visit on the above dates please contact Tania Yasmin (Headteacher) by emailing vacancies@greet.createpartnership.org.uk to arrange a different time.

Applications using the Create application form (no CVs please) should be returned by gam, Monday 27th March 2023.

CLOSING DATE: 27th March 2023 at gam

INTERVIEWS: Week commencing 17th April 2023. Interviews will include a lesson observation and a panel interview.

Starting date: September 2023.
