

Music Teacher

Primrose Hill Primary School · Camden, London

SALARY	MPS/UPS (Inner London) – fringe benefits and excellent CPD
START DATE	September 2026 (or earlier by negotiation)
CONTRACT	Full-time, fixed term 1 year
LOCATION	Primrose Hill, NW1 – minutes from Chalk Farm and Swiss Cottage

THE OPPORTUNITY

We are searching for a brilliant, generous and ambitious music teacher to lead and grow music across Primrose Hill Primary school.

This is a chance to build a curriculum and a culture: to put singing at the heart of our days, to fill our hall with ensembles and performances, and to make sure every child – from the four-year-old finding their voice to the Year 6 musician on the cusp of secondary – discovers what music can mean to them.

If you believe music belongs to every child, you will feel at home here.

WHAT YOU'LL LEAD

You will teach music to every class in the school, from our two-year-olds to Year 6, and shape the wider musical life of Primrose Hill, including whole-school singing assemblies. Organising 1:1 tuition led by instrumental teachers via Camden Music. Arranging our Winter Show and end of year performances. Delivering and enhancing our core curriculum in which every child learns recorder and ukulele.

WHAT WE OFFER

- A dedicated music room and our own on-site recording studio – yes, really
- Strong links with Camden Music, local secondary music departments and London's wider arts community
- Generous, protected planning and leadership time
- Colleagues who are kind, curious and proud of what we do – and a community of families who support us

ABOUT YOU

You don't need to tick every box but we hope you to recognise yourself in most of these:

- A confident, qualified teacher with a strong musical background

- Passionate about inclusive music education: you believe every child can be musical, and you teach as though you mean it
- Collaborative: happy to work alongside class teachers, visiting musicians and senior leaders, and just as happy to bring your own vision
- Warm, calm and ambitious for children
