

Exciting Opportunities for NQT's September 2021- Bligh Primary School

Start Date: September 2021

Hours: full time

Contract: permanent

Salary :M1

Bligh Primary School is part of the Maritime Academy Trust, an innovative partnership of schools in Greenwich, Kent and Medway. Our academies transform through collaboration and an entrepreneurial curriculum which equips children with life skills.

At Bligh Primary School we believe that it is our responsibility to give our children the greatest range of opportunities possible. We believe that providing the valuable building blocks to learning will enable our children to grow into successful adults and valuable members of our community. More than anything we want to give our children the opportunity to make a choice about their futures, to shape their own destinies, to be what they want to be!

We are looking for Newly qualified Teachers to join us from September 2021.

The successful candidate needs to:

- show commitment to creating an inspiring learning environment through excellent classroom practice
- have high expectations of both themselves and others
- value a team working approach and be keen to contribute and share their skills with colleagues
- be highly professional, positive and committed to ensure they secure excellent progress and attainment for pupils

We can offer you:

- A fully supported induction and mentor support
- comprehensive offer of tailored CPD
- a dedicated team of staff
- a clear vision and sense of working together

- a great working environment with outstanding resources
- Trust wide well-being initiatives and social activities
- Maritime Trust benefits package

If this sounds like you then we look forward to hearing from you
