Personal and Professional Conduct

A teacher is expected to demonstrate consistently high standards of personal and professional conduct. The following statements define the behaviour and attitudes which set the required standard for conduct throughout a teacher's career.

- Teachers uphold public trust in the profession and maintain high standards of ethics and behaviour within and outside school by:
 - treating children with dignity, building relationships rooted in mutual respect and at all times observing proper boundaries appropriate to a teacher's professional position;
 - having regard for the need to safeguard children's well-being, in accordance with statutory provisions;
 - showing tolerance of and respect for the rights of others;
 - not undermining fundamental British values including democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect; promoting tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs;

Teachers must have proper and professional regard for the ethos, policies and practices of the school in which they teach and maintain high standards in their own attendance and punctuality.
