About the Role

About the Role

We are seeking an enthusiastic and well-organised Outdoor Education Lead to help lead, develop and deliver a high-quality Outdoor Education Programme for our students.

This is an exciting opportunity for someone to inspire young people through learning beyond the classroom, supporting personal development, wellbeing and curriculum enrichment.

In return you will receive opportunities for professional development, training and the chance to make a meaningful difference to students' confidence, resilience and engagement.

In order to drive a school mini-bus, you must hold a full UK driving licence, and be over the age of 21.

Primary Role - Ten Tors Manager

- Organise and run our Ten Tors teams to enter the Ten Tors event each year.
- Plan routes, sort logistics, complete Risk Assessments and sort EVOLVE forms
- Liaise with other schools, the LA and the Army
- Coordinate our Volunteers each weekend
- This is currently 10 weekends a year and includes these dates (take dates from School calendar)
- Additional Ten Tors Manager briefing in October at Okehampton Camp
- At least Moorland Leader Qualification (with Camping Endorsement)
- In-date Outdoor First Aid certificate (16 hour course)

Other Roles and Responsibilities (desirable)

- DofE Manager to coordinate the Bronze and Silver participants and Expeditions (+ 3 weekends)
- Work with other staff to run The Exe Valley Challenge in July each year (+1 weekend)
- Work with other staff to run The Jurassic Coast Challenge in June of each year (+1 weekend)

Person Specification

- Very good communicator and team player
- Energetic and committed
- Ability to work under pressure
- High level of integrity
- Positive role model
- Able to demonstrate commitment to safe school culture
- Reflective

- Must pass all relevant safeguarding of children checks
