Gamston Primary are looking for an excellent practitioner who has the knowledge, experience and skills to provide all children with a high quality education. The right candidate will be committed to providing all children with a broad, diverse and aspirational curriculum. The position includes the role of SENCO. The school has a roll of 103 and an experienced staff team.

You will:

- Have the SENCo qualification or be willing to work to achieve this;
- Be committed to achieving the highest standards and have a strongly held belief that all children can achieve;
- Have excellent communication skills and be able to inspire staff and pupils
- Be proactive and solution-focused;
- Be reflective about your own practice and keen to contribute to your own learning and professional development.

In return we can offer you:

- Children who are rewarding to teach and who thrive on success, nurture and positive relationships
- A dedicated and highly motivated staff who have strong relationships with pupils, parents and the local community
- A friendly working environment
