Job Title:	Part-Time Teacher of Humanities (History Specialist) (0.6 FTE)
Salary	MPS
Hours:	Part-time (0.6FTE)
Location:	Sidmouth College

Sidmouth College has a vacancy for a talented and ambitious Part-Time (0.6 FTE) Teacher of Humanities (History Specialist) to start on 1st September 2026.

We require a highly committed and motivated practitioner who can ensure that the History Department continues to grow from strength to strength. Along with a high standard of teaching and learning, the successful candidate will have the ability to think strategically and creatively and work collaboratively across the Department and the College.

Excellent curriculum knowledge is essential, and the successful candidate will teach History at KS3 and KS4.

We are looking for candidates who possess the ability to enthuse and inspire students by sharing their passion for History.

At Sidmouth College, we are always keen to invest in potential and this post would suit someone who is committed to their own and other continuous professional development and has aspirations of further progression.

Sidmouth College is a thriving 11-18 community college located in the Devon countryside. The College buildings sit within an attractive 13-acre campus and staff take every opportunity to make use of the natural environment on our doorstep to support students' learning and creativity. At Sidmouth College the individual is right at the heart of what we do.
