We are seeking to appoint an enthusiastic, highly motivated Pastoral Co-ordinator to support the Year Leader in identifying and implementing strategies to support pupils with social, emotional and behavioural difficulties.

The person appointed will support pupils in accessing all aspects of school life successfully - supporting with attendance, wellbeing, behaviour and engagement in learning. The successful candidate will work productively with pupils and their families, as well as with school staff and outside agencies.

Applicants should be pro-active, approachable, possess excellent communication skills and be capable of building and maintaining positive working relationships. Strong organisational, record-keeping and time-management skills will be vital, as is the ability to work effectively upon one's own initiative as well as part of an experienced, dynamic and supportive team.

We are keen to receive applications from energetic, committed and hard-working applicants who are ready to want to make a real and lasting difference to the lives of our young people by joining our highly valued team of Pastoral Co-ordinators.
