About the Post

We are looking to appoint a temporary Peripatetic Music Teacher to teach violin to an exceptional level, to students in Years 7 to 13, preparing them for assessments in either external performing examinations, or GCSE and A Level examinations

Twynham School is a very special place with an excellent reputation both locally and nationally. We are a heavily over-subscribed school where achievement is exceptionally high, students are well-behaved and eager to learn and relationships are very special. There is an energy about Twynham School; we are entering an exciting decade for the school, our MAT and our community and successful applicants can be confident that they will be working in a truly great environment.

This is a truly exceptional opportunity for a talented colleague.

Who we are looking for

We are looking for an outstanding individual who will relish the opportunity to:

- Teach violin to students in Years 7 to 13, preparing them for annual examinations and be responsible for an extra-curricular pianoforte ensemble.

You are likely to be someone who is or has the potential to be:

- An inspirational teacher who will encourage more students to have a passion for music and a love of learning the violin
