Ryders Hayes is a musical school. Trustees are looking to appoint an enthusiastic, talented, and dynamic specialist woodwind music teacher for September 2025 onwards, to take our existing bespoke, Kodály-based woodwind Wider-opps curriculum for Year 5 and recorder curriculum for Year 3 as well as our high standard of instrumental tuition to the next level, who will: inspire pupils, colleagues and parents; drive the teaching and learning of music and enrichment opportunities; bring fresh ideas and challenge and have a proven track record of delivering an exciting music curriculum/ with high expectations for themselves and all our pupils.

Peripatetic instrumental teaching to be delivered in small groups to children from Year 3 - Year 6 and work alongside an energetic team of specialist music teachers at Ryders Hayes. Applicants with the prerequisite skills but without a teaching qualification will also be considered.

We are looking for:

- an inspirational specialist woodwind teacher who brings commitment, enthusiasm and energy to this post
- a specialist woodwind teacher with proven experience of at least 3 years, with high impact upon teaching and learning
- model and understand what great music teaching looks like
- someone with the confidence and experience to make a valuable contribution the life of the school
- a teacher who are generous with their time because they want the very best outcomes for pupils
- creative specialist woodwind teacher who can think 'outside the box' and contribute to our vision
- specialist woodwind teacher who see solutions rather than problems and who embrace teamwork
- staff with ambition and determination to be the best they can be in whatever direction they want their career to go
- a teacher who want to be professionally respected, well supported and developed

SPECIALIST WOODWIND MUSIC TEACHER WANTED FOR SEPTEMBER 2025

- someone who ensures that all pupils make expected progress towards aspirational targets and develop their musicality
- a practitioner who champions our high standards of pupil behaviour and expectations of good character
- a professional who supports the development of an inspiring and innovative Music curriculum, differentiated to meet the needs of all pupils
- someone to uphold the inclusive principles that are integral to our ethos;
- a professional who want a wider impact beyond the classroom; to create opportunities for performance and appreciation of a range of musical genres, sign-posting pupils to more advanced musical groups
- people with excellent emotional intelligence and interpersonal skills and the ability to work in partnership with our staff; a range of professionals, partners, pupils, parents and trustees
- champions of positive mental health, well-being and growth mindset for pupils and staff alike

We can offer you:

- a vibrant, happy workplace
- the opportunity to make a difference to our happy and successful school, with the pupil at the heart of every decision.
- a school open to new ideas and challenges; keen to adopt evidence-based research and willing to embrace change for the good of the school and partner schools
