Strathmore school vision:

We are dedicated to preparing every learner to become an active contributor to their community by:

- championing independence,
- engaging families and
- promoting communication.

We feel that the best approach to supporting our learners to reach their potential is by all members of the teaching team facilitating learning through a structure of plan, do, review and supported by Quality First Teaching. Teaching Assistants' professional knowledge and expertise are an integral part of this model and as such, we highly value their contributions to the planning and assessment processes, as overseen by the Class Teacher and HLTA.

Purpose and Objectives of Work

To provide support for learners, the Class Teacher, HLTA and the school in order to raise standards of achievement for our learners, all of whom have severe or profound and multiple learning disabilities and many of whom have a co-diagnosis of Autism Spectrum Condition.

To encourage learners to become independent, to provide support for their welfare and to support the inclusion of learners in all aspects of school life by utilising a good standard of practical knowledge and skills. Through delivering lunchtime clubs, develop learner progress in social situations through promotion of play, both structured and unstructured. To promote independence in self-care routines.

To liaise with all class staff when the Class Teacher is absent, to work in all areas of the Trust as and when required.

The Auriga Academy Trust is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share in this commitment. The successful applicant will be required to undertake an Enhanced DBS Check with a check of the DBS Barred List

Teaching Assistant Duties

1. Work as part of the staff team at the direction of the School Leadership Team / Class Teacher / HLTA to support teaching provision and pupils' learning.
2. In conjunction with the Class Teacher and HLTA, respond to learners' diverse needs, both as individuals or in groups, providing challenging learning opportunities appropriate to their level of child development.
3. Be fluent in Strathmore Development Framework in order to contribute to lesson plans and the implementation of best practice to meet the needs of individual learners.
4. In conjunction with the Class Teacher and HLTA, help to plan and organise learning activities that promote communication and independence.
 - ❖ help to develop and prepare resources,
 - ❖ implement strategies for teaching and learning for individuals and groups, taking into account their specific needs and starting points,
 - ❖ build in opportunities for generalising skills and knowledge beyond the classroom.
5. Support the teaching through use of appropriate specialist strategies and inclusive ICT; assist learners to access the full curriculum through being fluent in learner EHCP and curriculum outcomes.
6. Help to monitor the progress of identified learner's performance, using ICT effectively to support learning and to contribute to assessment. Keep video and written records, consistent with school systems, and provide the Class Teacher / HLTA with feedback on learner progress.
7. In collaboration with the Class Teacher / HLTA and other school professionals, contribute to setting short-, medium- and long-term outcomes and to periodic formal and informal review meetings (including contributing to written reports).

Provide support for learners' emotional and social development by encouraging and modelling positive behaviour and supporting the development of self-regulation; helping learners in crisis and following the Trust and School Behaviour Policy.

8. Dealing with disruption as outlined in the Trust's Behaviour Policy.
9. Gather and report information from and to parents as directed, in line with Home/School Communication Policy.
10. Accompany and support learners during inclusive learning activities within mainstream partner schools, including working with the learners of those schools under Class Teachers' direction. Work with mainstream learners during inclusive learning activities taking place within Strathmore.
11. Attend outings with learners, in accordance with school policies and safety guidelines, providing assistance with learner's care and welfare and with the learning activities undertaken.
12. Following school procedures, attend to learners' personal needs and implement related personal programmes, including social, health, physical, behavioural, hygiene, medical and welfare matters. This will include assisting with the administration of medication in accordance with individual's Healthcare Plan. Respect the confidentiality of learner information and respond sensitively to learners' needs.

- 13. Be aware of key school plans, policies and procedures, especially the Health and Safety and Safeguarding policies, reporting concerns to the appropriate person.
- 14. Take an active role in the Performance Management and Appraisal cycle in order to identify and agree development needs and appropriate training. Improve own practice through research, self-study, training, observation and discussion.
- 15. Take part in hydrotherapy and swimming sessions alongside learners in the water, under the supervision of a swimming tutor. Support learners to develop independent dressing skills.
- 16. Understand the specific physical needs of the learners and know how to respond appropriately, seeking advice where unsure.

Lunchtime/ Play Leader Duties

- 17. Promote and facilitate the progress, integration and inclusion of learners, including those from mainstream schools.
- 18. Supervise learners in the playground and at break times. In collaboration with other Playleaders, plan and lead lunch time activities and clubs to promote developmentally appropriate play skills, turn-taking and social interactions. Consider how to develop imaginative play and work towards generalising motor skills to enable participation in group games.
- 19. Collaborate with colleagues from mainstream partner schools to organise and deliver inclusive play activities, supporting learners from both settings to play and interact together appropriately.
- 20. Under the direction of the Campus teachers, support with the set-up and clear-up of the lunch hall, involving learners to promote their independence where possible.

Other

- 21. Work in all areas of the Trust and liaise with all staff in class when the Class Teacher is absent.
- 22. Within contracted hours, attend staff meetings as required. On occasion attend adhoc training and attend Inset days to upskill and best practice.
- 23. Within contracted hours, undertake Induction training and other training as may be required for the better performance of your duties.
- 24. Undertake all duties and interactions with employees, partner providers fairly, without unlawful discrimination and with due regard to the Trust's Equalities policy.
- 25. All staff are expected to work as a whole school team towards the School Development Plan objectives within a spirit of mutual professional respect and to foster a positive school climate in which all are supported to thrive and learn.

26. These are the key tasks as currently defined. They are not listed in priority order and postholders should not place emphasis on the location of the task within the forgoing job description. From time to time the key tasks may be varied and the postholder will be expected to take on such variations within the constraints of the grade and the level of responsibility implied in it.
