

Recruiting now – Post Holder of English for September 2024

Salary: MPR/UPR + TLR2b

Hornsey School for Girls is consistently in the top 20% of schools nationally as recognised
Pupils enjoy school and are safe. They spoke of the sense of family they get from being in a small school. Relationships between staff and pupils are positive. They reflect respect and kindness, both of which are at the core of this community school's ethos. Ofsted 2022

Right now we are searching for exceptional talent and offering opportunities to be part of something unique.

We have high ambitions for our staff as well as our students. As you will be investing in our young people, we will invest in you.

As well as financial incentives, your career pathway will be developed with you and will include:

- Progression opportunities both internally and externally through our bespoke CPE programme and outstanding links with Ambitions School Leadership, Teach First, East London Consortium and others
- Outstanding mentoring/coaching programme with all staff having access to Lead Practitioner support through our Inspires Team
- Bespoke and individualised programme for ECTs and Teach First participants
- Innovative professional development through our stranded CPE programme for all staffing levels

In addition to this:

You will have the opportunity to lead an amazing team - English results are above the national average consistently

- There is an English specific base area and a supportive SLT
