Headteacher: Mrs. Nina Will

Stag Lane Primary School and Nursery

PRIMARY CLASS TEACHER – ECTs welcome to apply

Stag Lane Primary School is looking to recruit an enthusiastic, flexible and highly motivated teacher who will be committed to improving outcomes for all of our children, along with a passion for providing inspirational learning experiences.

Do you dream of working in a school where teaching is based on action research? At Stag Lane you are not only encouraged, but supported to unleash your creativity to provide exciting, modern and relevant learning experiences based on Rosenshine's Principles of Instruction.

We have strong commitment to modern professional development, and at Stag Lane you will have the chance to work with other great teachers and support staff.

Whilst all posts are advertised as a one-year contract there is potential for them to be made permanent in the future.

The successful candidate would:

- Have high expectations of pupils' achievement and behaviour
- Be flexible and open to new ideas
- Be a team player
- Fully support the ethos and aims of the school
- Be of a nurturing nature

In return we offer:

- An exciting and professional opportunity to join a highly experienced team
- A dedicated, hardworking and highly skilled team of teachers and support staff
- Committed and supportive Governors
- A strong, effective and experienced senior leadership team
- Good achievement and standards
- A friendly, happy, multicultural and supportive atmosphere
- A commitment to your continuous professional development
